FOREWORD

We hope that this issue of the BITTER ROOT will not be set aside as just another annual, but that it will be looked upon by the classes to come, as a trail-blazer, in that there has been no regular edition of the yearbook for some time. . . . We have tried by combining modern features with school traditions to make this BITTER ROOT a true chronicle of school life.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Back in the fall of 1931 the thought of graduating in ' 35 seemed almost centuries away. But, bere we are! So close to our goal that we can see it just ahead of us. Such a circumstance makes one sit down and think about all the things that have occurred during the eight semesters spent under the roof of Missoula High School. But when thinking back we remember that as the greenest of freshmen our first thrill of high schoal was cut short by the great fire that demolished our high-school-to-be. After a forced vacation we landed back in grade school. The classes had been managed so that we hadn't mingled with the older students at all, and when our sophomore year started we entered our own building with no more sense of what to do than the freshmen.

As sophomores we were still rather young and it wasn't until our junior year that we united as a class and began to try out our wings. After choosing Fred Bedard as president. Marion Smith as vice-president, Ritchic Turner as secretary, and Mrs. Keeton as sponsor, we launched into a campaign to carn funds for the Junior Prom. Our first venture was the Barn Dance that has since become an annual junior affair. This was a social and financial success and showed the stuff the class of ' 35 was made of. Our biggest profit, however, we made by sponsoring the moving picture, "Berkeley Square,"

The funds for the Prom swelled encouragingly and were completed by the dividends from the "Bubble Ball." This semi-formal had balloons galore and people with pins had great fun. Then the high spot of the year: One of the most colorful and artistic Junior Proms ever held was given in May, 1934. Thus our junior year was successfully drawn to a close and the final lap began in September. The first all-school affair, the annual Senior Mixer, started the year off right. Ritchie Turner, president: Dorothy Schaefer, vice-president: Tom Koch, secretary-treasurer: and Mr. Erickson, sponsor, composed the executive head of the class. Then came a campaign to see if the seniors would support a drive for an annual publication. THE BIT TER ROOT. The staunch members of this class stood by the ship and the plans came through with flying colors: In order to raise money for its production, the Senior Council. composed of Wilson Dobson. Sibel Taylor, Barbara Brinck, Norbert Donahue. Tom Hazelrigg. Donald Marshall. Fay Lubs, and Eugene Hall, arranged for a series of dime affairs: Eight old but famous films were shown in the auditorium for ten cents each. Matinee dances beld in the lunchroom were popular, too. The Senior Spring Formal was the main social event of the class and everyone enjoyed himself.

JUNIORS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The juniors have made a great success of their first three years in Missoula High. This peppy class supported all school activities with great entbusiasm. holding up especially well their end of the social goings-on by giving dances. parties, and club programs and cooperating in the other class presentations.

Organizing as sophomores with Miss Swearingen as sponsor and Charlotte Fritz, Guy Rogers, Marian Hawker and Mildred Robinson as officers, the class of ' 36 started things going with a series of matinee dances. The bigh-light of that year was a Valentine assembly which showed the real talent the class possessed.

As jolly juniors they opened their year of activities by selecting Mrs. Kecton for sponsor. Charlotte Fritz, president: Valeric Kennedy, vice-president: and Gordon Watts. secretary. As the first number on their program, they gave the students the Barn Dance, a colorful bill-billy get-together on October 19th. It was a success both financially and socially. Being an enterprising class they worked out a way to make money that was new to M. H. S. At two of the major football games during the fall, the rooters were kept warm by mustardsmeared hot dogs for 10 c . During November. Alexander Dumas' film production of "The Count of Monte Cristo" was sponsored by the class of " 36 and the profits reaped ended their financial worries for the Junior Prom. So they settled down to give the school some high-class entertainment. On December 2Ist a Christmas party was enthusiastically attended by students seeking a good time. After two months of inactivity the juniors presented one of the prettiest dances of the year, the annual Bubble Ball. Silver and black balloons cleverly concealed the ceilings of the lunch room and first floor corridor, and paper hats added a festive touch to the occasion.

After a busy year spent in raising funds and making preparations for the event, the date for the Junior Prom arrived. On May 24th the seniors were bonored at one of the loveliest Proms in the annals of the school. Beautiful decorations and dreamy music provided a good time for all.

The juniors have truly distinguished themselves in high school life both as a group and individually. They are well represented in each phase of sports and in all the elubs and societies. There is every indication that they will be one of the most outstanding senior classes that M. H. S. has ever boasted.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

The sophomores have been one of the most active groups of underclassmen Missoula High School has had for several years. The class of ' 37 started the season by choosing Miss Swearingen as sponsor and electing officers: Blaine Normandeau, president: Victor Grace, vice-president: Eugene Hames, secretary, An executive committee composed of Marie Brown. Vianna Calloway, Norman Streit. Tom Woods. John Stewart. Carl Gulley, Bud Blanchette, Mary Mooney. and Effiellen Jeffries represented the home rooms.

The first sophomore party, a matince dance in the lunch room February 15. was so well attended by the second year students that a series of them were planned and given in the spring months. Only sophomores were invited to these frolics. but they were enjoyed as much as all-school dances.

With the proceeds from these entertainments the sophomores extended their courtesy to the freshmen by honoring them at an informal spring party. Entertainment in the form of a program of songs and skits, followed by refreshments, constituted the first half of the party. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing, and the underelassmen departed after a thoroughly enjoyable time.

The sophomores are well represented in our school's sports. as Blaine Normandeau and Victor Grace played on the football squad, taking active part in the major games of the season, and Walter Hensolt shows good prospects as a valuable squad man. Bud Miller. Luther Weikel and Kenneth Kizer have played in minor basketball games. Emory Plummer distinguished himself on the track squad, and promises to be even better material in his next two years.

Thus the sophomores have made a fiying start on their high school career. We.hope they have even more success in their junior and senior years!

FRESHMEN

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

The freshmen started their activities as a class early by organizing in their first year, which has not been done in Missoula High School for several years. After selecting Miss Marion Davis as their class sponsor. they elected Dorothy Ann Murphey, president; Bill Stine, vice-president: and Charles Pew, secretary.

Not yet into the social sway of affairs, the freshmen did not hold any parties of their own but gave their support to other all-school functions. Many of their class members distinguished themselves by taking part in school activities The boys turned out in large numbers for football, basketball, and track, and one of them, "Cub" Potter, played on the football and basketball squads, earning his " M " in his first year, an unusual honor. The girls, too, responded, strengthening the G. A. A: teams and displaying great enthusiasm in assembly programs and Girls' Club presentations.

The freshmen have begun their four-year career with remarkable class spirit and determination. Congratulations to this peppy younger group and the flying start they bave made!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY
The purpose of the National Honor Society is to provide recognition for those students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship. service, and character. These students are in the upper third of their graduating class and only fifteen per cent of the seniors were chosen.

At the annual Honor Socicty assembly in March. thirty-nine students were selected for membership. two being Juniors. Miss Edna Mann is the sponsor of this thirteenth chapter and Miss Frances Lines is the secretary.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is the international honorary society for high school journalists. To be eligible for the organization one must be superior in some phase of journalistic work and in the upper third of hie class scholastically.

At the first business meeting of the year, Jimmy Besancon was elected president: Marion Smith. Vice-president: and Tana Wilkinson, secretary. Mrs. M. A. Lund acted as sponsor during the absence of Miss Margaret Ronan.

THESPIANS

As there were only two members in the dramatics society at the beginning of the year, the election of officers was postponed until after an initiation, held in January. Bill Wilcox was elected president and Marion Smith. secretary-treasurer.

Among this year's Thespian productions are "The Admirable Crichton." "Tbe Pirates of Penzance." and two groups of one-acts. The casts and committees of "The Admirable Crichton," and "The Pirates of Penzance" were honored at a dance following the presentation of the latter operetta.

STAGE SCREWS

The Stage Screws is an organization of boys who assist school clubs and societies in staging their assembly programs and plays. As they always work behind the curtains they go unnoticed by the majority of the students. but are really more indispensable than many other better-known groups.

There are no officers in the Stage Screws, as it is not organized as a club. The boys work on their own initiative under a stage manager and the dramatics instructor. Miss Harris.

FRENCH CLUB
The "Cercle Francais" was organized to provide entertainment combined with practical achievement in the use of French. The sponsor is Miss Ammer, and the 1934-35 officers were: president. Donald Marshall: vice-president. Arthur Mertz: secretary, Margaret Theime; and treasurer, Philip Payne.

Special programs were arranged for Hallowe'en and Christmas. An allFrench assembly program of slides. music and a play was presented in March. The forty French Club members said their "au revoirs" at a final picnic meeting.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club met on the second of October for the first time in two years. due to the absence of Miss Boileau, sponsor. The club elected as officers: Robert Spicher, president; Stanley Shaw, vice-president: Tana Wilkinson, secretary: Kathryn Maclay, treasurer

Meeting every two weeks, the society celebrated Christmas with an entertaining party, sponsored an assembly program in early February, and ended the season with the traditional spring picnic.

"M" CLUB

The "M" Club, composed of lettermen in any of the major sports. football. basketball, or track, elected Greg Rice, president: Guy Rogers, vice-president: and Bobby Price, sec-retary-treasurer, in its first meeting in December. George Mulvihill, president of the Assembly Program Committee. was chosen to represent the club in that body.

A dance after the Butte-Missoula basketball game in January was the first entertainment of the year sponsored by the club. The lettermen were placed in charge of the ticket sale for the "Bubble Ball."

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club bas kept the school spirit high this year by conducting pep assemblies before the major football and basketball games, and by leading the checring at these events. They also took charge of the ticket selling and ushering. even printing programs on one occasion.

The most important step taken in the club activities was framing the constitution, which will go into effect next year. This year's officers are: Jack Hughes, president: Janet Stiff. secretary: and Dorothy Schaefer, vicepresident.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Student Association is to provide a way for the students to cooperate in supporting school activities. With the membership card of the organization each student can see all football and basketball games, receive the school paper, and obtain admission to school functions where identification is necessary.

The officers for this year are: Stanley Shaw, president: August Zadra, vice-president: Mr. Ennis, permanent treasurer.

GIRLS' CLUB

Consisting of all the girls in high school, the Girls' Club is one of the largest organizations. Its 1934-35 officers are Polly Gilham, president: Sara Wadell, vice-president: and Dorothy Archibald, secretary.

The three annual parties given were the Co-Ed Prom, the Christmas Kid Party and the Girls' Club Dance. The food used as admission to the Kid Party was distributed to the needy at Christmas.

The Mothers' Day tea, in honor of the students mothers, closed the year's activities.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra has formed an indispensible part of nearly all the musical presentations this year. Under the able supervision of Miss Gladys Price they lent a beautiful touch to the Christmas cantata. Their versatility was shown by the professional ease with which they interpreted our national anthems at the Armistice Day assembly and by the performance at the February concert. The spring operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance," as well as the Baccalaureate and Commencement services, were greatly enhanced by the support given by the orchestra.

The year's officers were: Conrad Priess, president: Barbara Mahrt, sec-retary-treasurer; Charles Hulse, accompanist.

STRING @UARTET

The string quartet consists of four violinists, selected from the orchestra, who practice every Friday under the direction of Miss Gladys Price, music instructor. The quartet has worked mainly in conjunction with the orchestra, and has therefore been featured in nearly all its programs. Besides this they played "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "The First Noel" in the Christmas cantata, and presented selections in the spring concert.

The members of the quartet are Conrad Priess, Bob Parker. Audrey Darrow, and Walter King.

MIXED CHORUS

The mixed chorus elected Bill Kennedy for its president and Alice Hightower as its social sectetary. Janet Stiff has been accompanist.

Presenting the beautiful "1 Hear America Singing," the chorus provided the grand finale to the Armistice Day assembly, and was received most enthusiastically by the audience. They also added greatly to "The Adoration." the Christmas cantata.

Members of the mixed chorus were cast as characters in "The Pirates of Penzance," supporting the musical atmosphere of the production. They also were featured in the Music Week concert and Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

MIXED QUARTET

Composed of Josephine Bugli, soprano: Dorothy Truxler, alto; Eugene Phelan, tenor: and Earl Dahlstrom, bass, the mixed quartet is selected from the glee clubs and mixed chorus. Although it has not been very active this year, appearing in only a few assemblies, the group is very well-balanced musically.

The harmony of the mixed quartet added greatly to the beauty of the Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises. They appeared also in the spring concert beld in commemoration of music week.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club had for offlcers this year: Dorothy Schaefer. president and accompanist: Dorothy Truxler, secretary-treasurer: and Ruth Wilbur, social secretary. Opening its year of activity by assisting in the Armistice Day cantata, " 1 Hear America Singing," the group then added greatly to the Christmas assembly and to the evening concert beld February sixth.

The girls excelled especially as characters in "The Pirates of Penzance," given March twenty-ninth. providing the musical atmosphere to the operetta. They ended a year of successful performances by participating in the Music Week Concert, and at the Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises.

GIRLS' OCTET

Consisting of special voices from the Girls' Glee Club, the octet is composed of first sopranos, Margaret Hayes and Helen Faulkner; second sopranos. Ruth Eastman. Alyce Griffin, and Charlotte Fritz: and altos, Ruth Wilbur, Marie Brown, and Sue Jewett.

The girls sang "List! The Cherubic Host" at the Christmas program and presented in commemoration of Lincoln's birthday "To Thee O Country" at the assembly given in honor of the day. Besides these performances the octet took part in the Music Week Concert and the Baccalaureate services.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Besides forming an excellent supporting cast in the spring operetta "The Pirates of Penzance," the Boys' Glee Club has been featured in numerous musical programs this year. They sang part of the cantatas in the Christmas and Armistice Day assemblies and were included in the evening concert of February sixth. They also took an active part in the Mothers Day Assembly. Music Week Concert. and Commencement and Baccalaureate services.

For this year's officers the Boys' Glec Club elected Arsenio de la Pena, president: Tom Hazelrigg, vice-president: Eugene Hall. secretary-treasurer. and Eugene Phelan, social secretary. Dorothy Truxler is accompanist.

MAILE QUARTET

The male quartet is composed of Eugene Phelan. first tenor: Arsenio de la Pena, second tenor: Watson Dutton. baritone: and Earl Dahlstrom, bass. These boys have been perhaps the most active of the school's musical groups this year, becoming a favorite feature in all the major assemblies, and appearing in out-ofschool programs as well.

In many of their performances the quartet presented refreshingly original song skits in some cases even masquerading to fit their parts. Their well-blended voices brought encores on every occasion. humorous or serious. Among their out-of-school appearances were at the President's Ball. Masonic programs, G. A. R., Rotary Club, and several radio presentations.

ARE ALL MEN EQUAL, as Lord Loam contended, or do leaders evolve naturally from a given group of individuals, as the Admirable Crichton respectfully beld? This was the subtle point that forms the peg on which was hung the theme of "The Admirable Crichton," major dramatic production of the school year. The clever four act satire on the English social system. by Sir James Barrie, was presented November twenty-third.

The question of buman equalities is answered in the play when Lord Loam's yachting party, composed entirely of British peers, except for Crichton, the perfeet butler, and Tweeny, a maid, was shipwrecked on a desert island. Thus, given an opportunity to start on equal terms. Crichton, in two year's time, became a veritable king, proving him the natural leader of the group. By this was bis contention borne out: that customs which set one man above another in England were artificial and that the natural leader comes to the front in an even contest. These customs were very powerful, however, as was shown in the fourth act after the party was rescued. for Crichton was again butler, and the Earl of Loam. lord. The romantic element of the play was introduced by a love affair between Crichton and Lord Loam's eldest daughter, Mary, which was terminated by the rescuing of the castaways.

Bill Wilcox, carrying the lead as Crichton, portrayed the character with professional ease. Thoroughly the butier in the first and fourth acts. he changed completely into an overlord in the second and third.

Beth Clinger played Lady Mary Lassenby. Haughty and proud in the first. second and fourth acts, she became very charming in the third, carrying well the emotional climax of that act.

Alma Rae Holloway enacted Tweeny, the kitchen maid. Twisting ber apron, speaking bad grammar, she pleased the audience immensely, providing laughs as well as a little pathos. Lord Loam, in the person of Anthony McCune, was an English peer who, in an effort to prove his radical beliefs on equality, gave a tea every month for his servants. After the experience of being marooned on an island, played in an appropriate doddering manner, he modified his views.

Tom Koch. portraying a young minister. Treherne, was excellent, as asual. Treherne came to life as a rather likeable, enthusiastic friend of Lord Loam's party.

Lord Brocklehurst, effeminate fiancee to Lady Mary, was enacted accurately by Jon Weisel. Gladys Luedke became his autocratic mother, the Countess of Brocklehurst, with ease. The languorous roles of Ladies Catherine and Agatha were well played by Loyola McDonald and Valerie Kennedy.

The other players in minor positions portrayed character parts excellently.

IT WAS ALL A MISTAKF that Frederic as a Iad was apprenticed by his deaf nursemaid to a band of pirates rather than to a pilot. And when Frederic, handsomely portraycd by Eugene Phelan, tenor, reached his twenty-first year, fell in love, and resolved to destroy the buccancers, excitement ran bigh in the rollicking Gilbert and Sullivan operetta presented in the auditorium March 29 and 30 .

But complications arose in Frederic's path when he discovered that since he was born on the twenty-ninth of February, and bad consequently seen only five birthdays, he was still duty-bound to the pirate horde. Forced to choose between his love for the Major-General's youngest daughter and his sense of duty, be sacrificed the former and joined once again his swarthy companions in their battle against the doughty police force. Peace was affected, however, and Frederic was at last free to seek his sweetheart.

The roles of Richard, the iron-willed Pirate King, and Samuel, his hawklike licutenant, were played and sung realistically to every swaggering detail by Earl Dahlstrom, bass, and Elmer Barrett, baritone, while Leland Buker as the bustering sergeant of police brought down the house with laughter. Watson Dutton, baritone, gave one of the outstanding performances in the production, acting sensationally the comical part of Major-General Stanley, the grumpy old officer who had "information vegetable, animal, and mineral" on every subject.

The female side of the cast was equally well characterized. Mabel. General Stanley's youngest daughter, who was in love with Frederic, was beautifully sung by Margaret Hayes, soprano. The difficult vocal part of Ruth, the pirate maid, was carried with ease by Josephine Bugli, mezzo-soprano, and lovely solos by Ruth Eastman as Kate, and Helen Faulkner as Edith added greatly to the effect of the operetta.

An outstanding feature of the performance was the excellent support given the cast by the choruses, who not only looked and acted their parts in the plot, but sang the many musical numbers with amazing alacrity. The orchestra which accompanied the singers blended perfectly at all times.

The excellent music, fine acting, and skillful grouping shown in the operetta reflect greatly to the credit of Miss Gladys Price. Musical Director; Miss Mary V. Harris. Dramatics Director and Miss Marion Davis. Dancing Director. The technical and business staffs and costume and property committees also deserve much praise for their invaluable aid in staging the production.

Climaxing the most successful season in the history of football at Missoula High, the Purple and Gold squad was runner-up in the state interscholastic gridiron race. They defeated Helena, 21 to 19 . in the most thrilling game ever played on Dornblaser Field to give them the right to play Billings for the state championship.

The Purple's vaunted aerial attack was unable to click but three times against the Broncs Thanksgiving Day at Butte and, as a result, they scored two touchdowns. The Broncs ran up a 21 to 0 lead by the end of the third quar-

CoabH Sass Iruct Katu ter, while Missoula was able to get only 14 points. Rogers, allstate halfback, was injured in the second quarter and played only a few minutes during the rest of the game. Normandeau plunged through the center of the Billings line for both scores after passes by Rogers and Potter had placed the ball within the ten-yard line. The final score was Missoula 14. Billings 28.

Both of the squads were awarded team and individual trophies at a banquet in their honor at the New Finlen Hotel on the evening of November 29. Members of the Missoula squad received silver footballs while the Broncs were given gold football watch fobs. Coach Sam Kain and Coach Clyde Carpenter of Billings were among the speakers at the dinner.

When the team returned from Butte they were met at the depot by a large group of rooters and the Drum and Bugle Corps.

REVIEIV OF THE SEASON

Coach Sam Kain was not very encouraged as he looked over his prospects for the 1934 season. There were eight lettermen missing from the Western District champions of '33, among them Leo Lundy, all-state halfback, and George Cote, line-smashing fullback. Three other promising players were declared ineligible.

Fourteen of his 34 squad bad been under his tutelage the year before. but only five of them bad been regulars. On September 2 be started intensive drill. The Alumni were defeated, 13 to 0 , in the first test of the Missoula gridders. Most of the 1933 grads, with a few older players were on the Alumni team.

Missoula 66. Polson 0

"Much improvement was shown." said Coach Kain after the Purples had snowed Polson under an avalanche of touchdowns. The game was played September 15 on the new athletic field. Greg Rice and Guy Rogers both turned in good performances.

Missoula 6, Great Falls 0 .

The first of a long line of jinxes was broken when the Bisons were defeated on an icy gridiron September 21 at Great Falls. On the third play of the fray Rogers passed 13 yards to Potter, who continued on toward the goal for the only score of the game. Sixty-eight yards were covered on this long jaunt. Normandeau was the outstanding Purples' backfield man in this hardfought contest. Great Falls had won, 19 to 6 , the year before.

Missoula 56. Hamilton 0

The Purple and Gold passing attack was the feature of the Hamilton contest September 29, as they rolled up 206 yards by the aerial route. Missoula made 323 yards from rushing, compared to the Valley team's 24. Coach Kain used all of his 25 players. Rogers counted four touchdowns, Searles three, Rice and Grace, one each. The Purples presented a versatile offense which clicked on almost every play.

Missoula 25. Whitefish 6

Coach Hinderman's team was the first to score on Missoula in five games and they held the Purples scoreless for three quarters October 6 at the dedication game of Victory Field. Toward the end of the third period they snapped out of their lethargy and rolled up four touchdowns, with passes leading to all the scores. Coach Kain said that "too much overconfidence almost caused my boys to lose."

Missoula 19. Butte Public 12

Another jinx of long standing was cracked as the Mining City team was defeated on Dornblaser Field October 13. Butte scored one touchdown on one of the quecrest plays ever seen in Western Montana and counted their second one against the Purples second string. The most outstanding feature of this fray was the way Missoula continually out-played Butte in every department of the game. They out-rushed Butte, 265 yards to 59, and made 14 first downs to eight for Butte. Butte. however, made more yardage from passes than did the Purple and Gold deven.

Searles. Nybo, Zadra, Rogers and Rice were consistent stars for the Missoula offensive and defensive play.

Missoula 26, Kalispell 0

Guy Rogers turned in a splendid performance of broken-field running as be dashed 91 yards around the Braves' left end for a touchdown which began the rout of Kalispell on their home field October 20. Rogers chalked up 226 of Missoula's 243 yard total gained from scrimmage. Defensive play of the Purple's forward was strong, permitting Flathead to gain only 42 yards by rushing. Coach Kain announced that, "my boys did some fine work," after they returned to Missoula.

Missoula 14, Anaconda 6

The Anaconda Copperheads, playing on their home field, October 27, were as stubborn a foe to defeat that Missoula had found so far in a hard season. They outplayed the Purples for the entire first half and had a six-point lead as the third quarter began. Beal, Anaconda fullback. averaged 46 yards per punt to outdistance Potter and Rogers of Missoula. Stan Nybo reecived a short pass from Rogers for the first touchdown. Nybo intercepted an Anaconda forward in the fourth quarter and Rogers crashed his way over center to make the final score 14 to 6. Passes to Searles and Nybo counted each of the points after touchdown.

Missoula 26. Cub Reserves 6

Spectacular pass plays and strong interference, coupled with sturdy defensive work, were too much for the University Cub reserves to handle, and they were defeated. 26 to 6. on Victory Field November 9. Forward-laterals gained consistently for the Purples, and their wide end sweeps picked up yardage. Coach Sam Kain used his substitutes as much as possible in order to save his regulars for the clash with Helena.

Missoula 21, Helena 19

November 17 on Dornblaser Field was the stage for the fastest, most polished gridiron show by two high school teams ever seen in Western Montana. as the Crimson Bengals were nosed out in the last two minutes of a thrill-packed contest by three sensational passes. Rogers took Strong's kickoff on the 7 -yard stripe and returned it to the 27 , then passed to Searles for a 48 -yard gain. Rogers stepped back in pass formation and flipped a bullet pass to Greg Rice over the goal line for Missoula's third score. Larry Potter, freshman ace, placekicked all three of Missoula's points after touchdown.

Missoula sconed early in the first quarter when Rice started on a wide end sweep, cut back and raced 36 yards to the goal line behind perfect interference. Rogers went over the pay-line from the three-yard stripe after three forward passes and one lateral had placed the ball within scoring distance. Strong, the Bengal's all-state halfback, used bis elusive, side-stepping change of pace to score two of Helena's three touchdowns, and Fryett counted the other. Kelly was the most brilliant player in the Helena line, making crunching tackles all over the field. while Zadra. Figg. Nybo. Oeder and Robinson deserved a large share of the praise for their staunch work in the Purple and Gold forward wall. Rogers and Rice, aided by Normandeau and Potter, were the most effective men in the Missoula backfield.

Line Crash In The Cub Game

Two weeks of light workouts on blocking and tackling with hours spent on perfecting the execution of plays occupied Coach Kain's squad in preparation for the Billings game. A snowswept grid ruined Missoula's chances at Butte. as the wet, slippery ball continually oozed through their fingers.

Looking toward the 1935 season, we find that Missoula will be well fortifield in the line, with Searles at end. Figg and Robinson, tackles; Childley and Perry, ends: Ackerlund, tackle or guard, and Kimball, center, returning for another year of competition. A heavy, fast backfield, composed of Rogers, Blaine Normandeau. Vic Grace and Larry Potter will carry the brunt of the Purples offense.

The fundamentals of the gridiron sport were carefully learned in spring practice in '35. where all phases of the game are thoroughly practiced in preparation for the next fall's campaign. Coach Kain emphasizes blocking which makes the "perfect" plays possible, and tackling, which prevents the other team from scoring.

Much credit is given Managers Ray Perry and Walter Mace for their fine work in caring for the football equipment and other minor details which help build a football team. Perry coached the freshmen in 1934, from which there will be many boys to fill the places of the graduating veterans of the finest team in the history of Missoula County High School.

BASKET BALL

Missoula H gh's basketball team completed an erratic season by placing third in the Northern Division Class A tournament at Great Falls March 6 to 9. L.ast year Missoula won the tourney, but was defeated by an Anaconda "Wonder Team" in the state finals.

The 1934 quint set a record in the number of Big 14 conference victories. taking the scalps of Miles City, later the state champions. Anaconda, Butte Public. Helena, and Kalispell.

At the Northern zone play-off the Purple and Gold five "clowned" in all its games, defeating Havre, 36 to 11. Helena. 31 to 21; and Lewistown, 38 to 24 . in the consolation contest for third place. In the semi-final fray against Glasgow the Purples lest two valuable players on personal fouls in the latter part of the third quarter and the Highline team forged ahead to win, 34 to 23.

Prospeces for the team next season include Searles. Russell. B. Perry, L. Potter. C. Potter G. Croonenberghs, Kizer. Weikel, and Miller. Guy Rogers, allstate forward in the 1934 state finals, will be available for competition after a year's recuperation from a severe injury sustained in the state gridiron title game at Butte Thanksgiving Day, 1934.

1935 TRACK PROSPECTS

Missoula High School's chances of winning the 32 nd Interscholastic track and field meet for the second consecutive time are much better than was expected at the beginning of the season. At that time only two point winners from the 1934 state championship squad were reporting for practice. Greg Rice. victor in the mile and half-mile runs, and Ed Russell, who tied for first in the pole vault last May, being the only reliable money-makers for the 1935 contests. A Purple and Gold team never before has repeated its performances for two consecutive years, but the jinx is expected to be broken.

Missoula won the five year cup in 1934, with Butte placing second. Every five years a cup is awarded to the school making the largest number of points in those years. As a result of Butte's wide margin of victory in the ' 33 meet, they were ahead of Missoula until the finish of the 1934 competition.

Russell probably will collect points in the pole vault, and is a contender in the high jump and low hurdles. Greg Rice will undoubtedly make ten points in the distance runs, and also fill in on the relay team, which does not add to the point total. Ralph Figg, 185 -pound football player, has a good chance to break the state record in the discus throw, having made around 120 feet in practice, and is improving rapidly. Figg might get a few points in either the shot put or javelin, but is not particularly strong in these events.

Bobby Price, another football star, is the "speed demon" of the squad. hitting a fast 440 -yard dash and will probably be entered in the 100 and 220-yard sprints. He is being pushed by Burton Perry in the " 440 ."

Plummer and Peterson are other distance runners who with a little experience place in the mile or the " 880 ." Herb Searles is the best high burdler, and also runs the 220 -yard low hurdle race. Jacobsen, Nybe, and Wold are more inexperienced prospects for the low hurdles.

Speint Taho wf

Charles Jacobsen leads the broad jumpers. but has not hopped over $19 / 2$ feet in practice. Twenty-one feet three inches took first place in the broad jump last year, Leo Lundy of Missoula winning this event. George Croonenberghs. a tall, slim lad, has developed the best high jumping form so far. Al Croonenbergs, six feet four inches of basketball center, might be able to help Figg in the weights, throwing the shot and discus with much ease.

Butte Public is practically conceded second place if Missoula wins, but Great Falls is regarded as the "dark horse" of the meet. The Mining City squad will include a miler who trailed Rice by 30 yards in his record-breaking mile last May. Soltero of Fergus is one of the fastest sprinters to return to competition. The field events have no outstanding weight men or jumpers this year, so that field will be wide open for points.

Three state records were broken as Leo Lundy topped the low hurdles in 25 seconds flat. Campbell of Park County flipped the javelin 194 feet six and cne-half inches. Erwin of Miles City ripped off a 2 minutes and 3 and nine-tenths half mile run. Lundy also won the high hurdles and broad jump, placed fifth in the 100 for a total of $15 \mathrm{y} / 2$ points. getting high individual honors of the meet. He graduated from M. H. S.
last spring.
The high jump, won by Decker of Whitefish, halted at $5^{\circ} 115 / x^{\circ}$. Wills of Park County put the shot 48 feet 4 inches to take first place. He will not be eligible to compete here in May, The discus throw was won with a heave of 120 feet 11 inches. The record is 128 feet. Butte Public usually has two or three strong men for the weights, as does Park County and other large high schools of the state.

BITTER ROOT BEAUTY CONTEST WINNERS

An all-school beauty contest was conducted by this year's staff to provide an added feature of interest in the 1935 Bitter Root. Each home room nominated its two most attractive candidates, and from this group of seventytwo nominees twelve were chosen for the final competition. On March 16 the three first winners were selected, their identities being secret, however. until the date of publication. The remaining nine finalists were not judged, but wete awarded equal places on the Honorable Mention page.
