Class Prophecy

JOE AND MARY LOISE are now man and wife,
They have been married ten years of their life.
Joe's a fine lawyer, his wife's a fine cook,
He broods o'er a dictionary, while she o'er a book.

Poor Wm. C. after long years of strife,
Finally won Leah to be his fair wife.
Ruth and wee Willie have settled at last.
She waits for the future. He longs for the past.

Jewel's now washing. She washes Hal's clothes.
Mildred's an old maid. For a living she sews.
Jane and Bill Albrecht are in a tent show.
Bobbie and Johnie and Edwin are too.

Jame's a statesmen. He writes prose as well.
Edgar and Pig are running a "still"
Elsie is married long may she rave
Over her household and over her knave.

"Liz" is not married, she 'scaped that ordeal.
Maurine is married. She married Jack Neal
Lee is now Governor. She's taking "Ma's', place.
Mabel came second. She ran Lee a tight race.

John is a salesman. He travels the states.
Harold's a conductor who punches the rates.
Hattie May Barnhill's a clerk in a store.
Harold McDonald is searching for lore.

Juanita is dancing. In France she's a star.
Ben's her good husband. He has a fine car.
Cecil is traveling for Sears and Roebuck.
Leo still loves her. We hope them good luck.

Eva's a waitress, now, in the Savoy.
She still loves Hubert and he's a good boy.
Catherine and Jimmie are still low and small.
T