THE SENIOR PLAY

The Senior play this year is destined to be one of the very best that has ever been presented in Marlin High School. The characters are practicing every afternoon, and we are awaiting the results with a great deal of enthusiasm and anticipation.

The name of the play is "Sunshine" and the characters are:

Maudelia McCann, aged ten	Bennie Forrest
Mrs. Bunch McCann, of Detroit . .	Josephine Pteers
Mrs. Sol Whipple, the country lady . .	Ollie Fae Bullock
Tessie Mitford, the mental case . . .	Ida Holmes
Mr. Juba Butternip, the old man . .	Maynard Belson
Miss Gregory, the nurse	Lida Pierson
Buddy Brady, the ball player . . .	Ernest Maxwell
Major Kellicott, the speculator	Bill Clawson
Jim Anthony, he's engaged	William H. Jones
Sylvia Deane, she's engaged	Evelyne Phillips
Mary, "Sunshine"	Carolyn Threadgill

The scene is laid at the lawn in Sunshine Sanitarium, near New York City.
