CLASS PROPHECY

Ours was the class of '27.
Students, we numbered forty-eight and eleven.
Now we are scattered far and wide.
James is a doctor; Ollie Fae is his bride.
Ernest won fairly Bill Tilden's place;
Millard came second in the final race.
The Palace Theatre is now owned by Lida.
The leading ladies are Evelyne and Ida.
A famous coach is our friend B. A.;
It's rumored he's engaged to Bessie Mae.
Edward and Percival have a famous duet;
They got their training in the Marlin Quartette.
Josephine's running the old maids' home;
Lucille Yates is traveling in Rome.
Bennie is married to Henry Boehm.
Lometa is a writer of unexcelled fame.
Rachel's a typist—the best in the state.
Pete is still trying to find him a mate.
A miser and a hermit is Raymond Stone,
Except for his dog he lives all alone.
Herscel's an artist; Cecil's a clerk;
Gabe married money—he doesn't work.
Edgar paints signs for his living, they say;
Carmen is married to Georgie Mae.
Bill is straw boss at the A. & P. store;
Alma is living on a foreign shore.
Loyce, a musician, wedded Leslie B.
A first-class seamstress is Marylee.
J. V. has invented a hair tonic that's great;
Nolie is a doctor; he works early and late.
Naomi and Mae Bell are living together;
They married farmers and depend on the weather.
Lucille Thomaston and Mattie B.
Are teaching school, and Audivee
Is a lawyer of note, the papers al say.
George works at the Pennant night and day.
William Henry is an evangelist preacher;
Hazel Garret is an English teacher.
Thelma and Ruby are living in France;
They are teaching Ivey Ola how to dance.
Carolyn is married to the Oklahoma sheik;
Herman works about once every week.
Maynard married Lucille Blassingame;
John V. is a comma blunder teacher of fame.
Louis and Wesley have married well;
Pearl Cobb is a society belle.
Forrest is owner of the famous Nehi;
Howard's mother-in-law is about to die.
Juanita Bryant is living in Mart;
Dutch Sebesta won a Junior's heart.
Albert Alexander, our Spanish 'star,'
Has invented a new model Alexander car.
Albert invents and has Clifton to sell;
Together they're doing exceedingly well.
Butheita and Sophie live at Harmony Hill;
Sophie is a salesman of unquestioned skill.
Butheita jerks soda at the City Drug Store—
That's all there is; there ain't no more.