Dedication

To you, Miss Liles, our sponsor, we do whole heartedly dedicate this volume of The Marlinian. You have been the dearest and the best sponsor that a class has ever had, and without you, this year would have been less bright and our achievements fewer. May you ever meet success and happiness, and remember a class that owes everything to you.

The Seniors.