Foreword

MAY you look upon this book in later years and be able to look back over 1926-1927 as one of the many successful years of your life. May it bring back the memories of happy days spent in work and play in Marlin High School; and, lastly, may it carry your mind back to the dear recollections of the past by bringing to your eyes the ever shining glory of M. H. S.