District Court convenes in Webster on the 10th.

Several prairie fires were out in this city night before last.

Wild geese by the million were going south the first of the week.

The senate confirmed William Daily, United States Marshal for this state, on the third.

The snow storm of Saturday last was much heavier on the divide in this county than in the valley.

The new paper at Lincoln is to be called the Globe, and to be independent of everything.

The Press and Saline County Post, laboring hard with the Hon. Church Howe, and it is to be hoped that their labors will avail more than the ancient mountain we read of—or the species will be of a healthier character.

The appointment of Richard H. Dana as minister to England, appears to have been obnoxious to Ben Butler, consequently he kicked over Dana's lamp, and it is feared the explosion will be fatal to the latter.

Warner of the Red Cloud Chief, recently visited Chicago, where he went to a "hog show," and saw the Centennial pig, which was sold for a dollar a pound. We haven't much of show here, and then its near home at that, but Mr. Walker has sold hogs for more than that all winter.

Investigations being in order now, our west end neighbors appeared at the Co. Treasurer's desk to investigate the affairs of their school district, on Tuesday.—We failed to ascertain the politics of the old board, but learned that the committee failed to discover any fraud—as is usual the case with these committees.

Mr. Crothers, of Hackensack N. J., who visited Nebraska in January, is "doing" his trip in the Bergen Co. Democrat, a copy of which has been received. He hasn't reached the valley yet.

The Omaha Herald give our democratic friends in this county a very commendable notice, and especially commends the action of Mr. Harman, in bringing them to the surface. We are glad to see the democracy of the county put in their claims, and no one is better calculated to act a prominent part than Mr. Harman. It will put the republican party on its guard and no man will be given prominence, except he merits it. We have got the material, and only need to cast our eyes about a little to find it.

Meeting of the Co. Central Committee.

Business was brisk in town the first of the week. The assessors met Monday and commissioners were in session Tuesday, and part of Wednesday, which together with the usual crowd of land hunters at the Land Office, brought a large crowd to town.

The following we clip from the Kearney Press, which decision effects parallel cases to that of our Co. bridge bonds.

The supreme court of Nebraska has decided that all bridge bonds issued by precincts and counties are valid. This is a ruling of some importance, and while it may not fully stop litigations, will cut them short. The custom of issuing bonds for such purposes, and then refusing to honor them, is of too frequent occurrence in this state. Counties should be more careful in instituting public improvements, and then the evil will be checked. County Commissioners and precinct officers apparently believe they can issue the bonds, get the work performed, and then escape payment on some technicality. But they must understand that the courts will authorize the payment for all work performed according to contract, or nearly so, regardless of silly protests and quibbles. Were they to recognize this fact at the start the tax-payers would be saved much expense and vexation.

As Others See us.

The following letter we find in a recent Omaha Republican, the production of Flavus Mrcmillan of the Rep City News:

Bloomington, the seat of the valley land office, is the centre of much business, and at present the representative town of the southwest of the state. Hon. Evan Worthing, receiver of the U. S. land office, has a genial and quiet way of doing a great deal of service both to the republican party and the homesteader, without the need of assumption and in the confidence that the men he does business with are his friends, and the same remark applies to the new register, Hon. Webster Eaton, who makes an efficient officer, and has all the promise of a young man at the beginning of a useful career.

Among the business men of the town we have only time to note briefly the gentlemen whose names are presented below as new subscribers to the official state paper and the newsiest sheet now afforded in Nebraska.

The leading land attorneys of this district are the Messrs. Dorsey and Pession, who came here from Beatrice and brought with them a full experience, wide state acquaintances and the levellest heads to be found in half a score of conventions, even when Limber Jim gets in edgewise or Hairy Ed. of Lone Tree, sits supreme. These gentlemen have the largest land office practice in the state, and they have become an oracle on the land laws and the very newest of the new rulings; as also they have the merit to know the best daily in Nebraska and pay for it cash down, which is the summit of well doing.

Messrs. Buck and Greenwood are the founders of the original county seat of Franklin county, now held at Bloomington and likely to remain there. But in the recent rapid growth of this new land office town, like many another, they have taken stock in Bloomington and her destiny for wear or woe, and opened a large sales-room for general merchandise, in which they are averaging cash sale per day of seventy-five dollars. Mr.

In our former charges against Church Howe as a bribe-taker, we were very careful to state only that which we could fully substantiate, giving him the benefit of every doubt. That he offered to sell himself very cheap upon the capitol-removal question we have very good authority. Only $300 was all he asked for his vote and influence to prevent the removal of the capital from Lincoln, and for a legislator who parts his hair in the middle this is dirt cheap. It is ruinously low, in fact it is granger's price, down to the bed rock, and will admit of no middleman's profits. But even at this figure Banker Owens, of Lincoln, didn't want to buy. In effect he answered—"No, Mr. Howe; I will not pay your price or any other sum; but you go and work and vote the same as if I had, or I will put you through for coming to me with such a proposition;" Was ever before a marketable law-maker so shamefully treated. Offered for three hundred dollars, and no bidders.—Kearney Press.

Narrow Gauge to Denver.

The contemplated Narrow Gauge Railroad from Lincoln to Denver, has awakened considerable talk in the counties south of the Platte. It should justly do so as it is one of the most important railroad routes that is now open. No road could be of more direct interest to our people, and in fact, to the whole State. We are gratified that the prospects for its construction are good. The Company has already organized under its charter, and the following officers have been elected:

Officers.

Silas Garber, President.
T. P. Kennard, Vice-President.
R. P. Beecher, Secretary.
S. G. Owen, Treasurer.

Directors.

Amasa Cobb, J. W. Hartley, W. W. Wilson, S. G. Owen, Silas Garber, T. P. Kennard, D. W. Montgomery, E. S. Past.—Nebraska Patron.

The Most Popular Song of the Day, is "Gathering Shells from the Sea Shore," composed by Will L. Thompson. Such is the extraordinary popularity of this most exquisite song that it is scarcely possible to keep it in print—Messrs. Lyon & Healy of this city have just given an order for 5000 copies, and other dealers are ordering it by the thousand.—Chicago Journal.

Meeting of the Co. Central Committee.

Bloomington, April 5th.

The committee met pursuant to a call of the chairman; present, Messrs. Worthing, Cook, O'Sullivan, Brown and Walker.

Cook moved that in the case of the absence of the committeeman from any precinct, if a member of the precinct committee be present, that he be allowed to represent the said committee, which was agreed to, and there being no committeeman present from Macon precinct, C. C. Dake represented the precinct.

Worthing moved that the apportionment be based on the republican vote for the Regent receiving the largest number of ballots, and that one delegate be apportioned for every twelve votes. On motion of Cook, it was ordered that one delegate be appointed for each excess when the excess shall be six or more.

On motion the following number of delegates were appointed to the respective precincts:

PRECINCTS:

Grant,.....	7	Butalo.....	1
Franklin,.....	4	North Franklin..	1
Bloomington,.....	4	Macon.....	3
Oak Grove.....	2	Ash Grove.....	2
Turkey Creek.....	3

Ordered that the County Convention be held at the court house in Bloomington on the 13th day of May, 1876, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Ordered that precinct causes be held on the 6th day of May, at 1 o'clock p. m., at such place as shall be designated by the precinct committee.

On motion the committee adjourned.

DANIEL BROWN, Ch'n.

C. H. Walker, Sec'y.

MARRIED—At the residence of Thos Muxlow, March 29th 1876, Miss Julia Ann Abbott to Mr. Robert Coates, both of this county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Muxlow.

So much for just two lines in the Guard, and just as we expected, too. Bob was well surrounded with the things that are earthly, and only needed the shining presence of a fair bride to make his home cheerful, and we congratulated him on his good fortune in receiving an offer from one so well fitted to make him happy in the future. May they ever be prosperous and recall in after years pleasant remembrances, dating from 1876, is a large sales-room for general merchandise, in which they are averaging cash sale per day of seventy-five dollars. Mr. Buck has plenty of outwestness, jollity and cigars; and every morning at breakfast he holds out between his extended arms the Daily Republican, big as a blanket and up to the rejuvenated post-Belknap times.

F. A. Harman is a mad democrat, but he takes this paper and does not eat fire, neither has he any other of the usual symptoms of democracy, which you will readily guess makes him a leader of that human wing of our local affairs.

J. W. Darby has a new and constantly enlarging stock of groceries and provisions at the west side of the Centennial square, and he is making ready to offer first rate dinners to the just and the unjust at equal and low rates.

D. Conner has a soft dimple in the gray of his brain. He likes the girls moderately and is said to be a good catch. He is not only a jeweller and dealer in Connecticut clock, but a searcher of records who gave away many a bounteous smile at the late elections.

H. S. Barnum has one of the largest valley livery stables, outfitted with the finest teams and carries to be met with along the line of the Republican valley and Denver railway, not yet built.

J. J. Shaffer is one of the original pioneers of the state and of Franklin, which is the banner Co. of Nebraska in agricultural displays.

No man who takes the big end of a cue or smokes a good cigar every went past Koelmel & Andra's rooms at the west side; and he keeps the most appetizing ales that a salesman could desire.

Joshua Howe and A. L. Daw are preparing a ranch for short horn cattle and Vermont sheep; and we learn that our friend W. H. Garland is locating at the south of the river, among a score of new arrivals for the same purpose.

S. Males, the agreeable postmaster, who sit at the cradle of the city and give it soothing syrup when in was teething in the olden day of prevalent blues and few comforts; and we are glad to see Mr. Males has come to a most desirable success, to which as in duty bound, and active partner in business, Mrs. Helen Males, has contributed not a little.

Call at the Guard office and see a neat seven column paper indigenous to these parts, and willing to nudge a man or two before the campaign begins. The Republican City News is also largely taken at this place. It has an agreeable way of

VOL IV NO 21

Saturday, April 8th, 1876. LOCAL MATTERS.

All the birds of spring have made their appearance.

Protect your homes from the devouring prairie fires that will be out in a few days.

Bond is getting out the lumber for a new side walk on the west side of the public square.

Last Saturday it snowed all day and we noticed several flies on the windows, to-day.

Shaffer has some of nicest pictures in town at his sales room. Look at them.

Another saloon is on the tapis.

Mr. Coe has purchased the Barnum property, and Mr. B. will occupy the Dr. Maynard house.

Mr. Budlong reports 9 inches of snow fall last week, in North Franklin precinct.

Mrs. deClercq, county superintendent, will hold an examination of applicants for certificates as teachers, in this county, at Bloomington to-day.

Judge Lucas put in an appearance in town this week.

D. VanEtten is expected back to this county during the month.

O. T. Greer goes this week to Lincoln, to sodder tin.

Fred, the immortal, is disconsolate. Abe Fist married his girl, and Fred had to go to Lowell straightway.

A little daughter of Frank Kirtley, in the southern part of the county, died last week, from lung and spinal disease.

Lomax Corn Cultivators for sale by Warriner & Austin, at Macon, at bottom prices, on good time. 22

Mr. S. M. Brown, of North Franklin, was in town day before yesterday, with his nephew, Mr. Stewart, from Iowa, who has just located in that part of the county.

J. W. Gehr, renews his subscription to the Guard, this week, just because; what's a home without the county paper

Dr. Razee was up and made final proof on his homestead and began a con-

notice, and this time it was last week, that we neglected to announce the arrival of Mr Buck, No. 4, at our popular merchants. Although somewhat of a light weight, (only 10 pounds,) he is not expected to assume much responsibility at present, but with gentle care and plenty of Nebr's. pure air he is soon expected to equal the boy that could throw his dad. Mrs. Buck is improving nicely, and George never felt better in his life.

Mess. Dorsey and Eaton are beautifying their homes with trees.

When we notice a man or any enterprise succeeding upon pure merit, we always gladly encourage such, and in the instance of Dr. W. W. Loyd, we think merit is very prominent. The Dr. pursues the even ten of his ways with no apparent bustle or stir, and the success he meets with is sufficient reward. We are confident no physician in the valley enjoys the confidence of the people better than he, and his practice is very large.

Boots and Shoes at Buck & Greenwood's, from $1.25 up to $8.

Mr. C. A. Coe, of Nottingham Indiana, a son-in-law to Joseph Blackledge of this county, arrived in Bloomington the first of the week, and will immediately erect a good business building and open a picture gallery here, and probably connect some other branch of business with that. He has already bought a dwelling and is commencing to live in shape, we are glad to welcome him among us and hope to see him meet with success abundant.

We understand that John Burnes, of Thompsone Creek, one of the party who recently left this county for the Black Halls, met with a severe accident near Loup City, this state, which caused him to return home and it will be several weeks before he will recover. He was run over by a horse, his arm broken between the elbow and shoulder, and other injuries received.

When you are in Macon examine those corn cultivators of Warriner & Austin's.

Read the new ad. of Buck & Hill, Real Estate agents. This partnership has been formed for the purpose of giving especial attention to the sale of land, homestead and pre-emption claims, and negotiating the sale of school bonds, warrants, etc. Will furnish non-residents with any desired information, concerning the county, and are prepared to offer rare bargains in improved and unimproved lands in Franklin County. All letters by mail, with stamp enclosed, receive prompt attention.

Buck & Greenwood will sell you a pair of boots or shoes, of a better quality, for less money than was ever offered before in this place.

M. O'Sullivan and his wife will be in town for a couple days this week.

Mr. Blouvelt, his wife and Mrs. Miller of the prairie, came down last night and are visiting with friend Starkey.

Those who who are likely to be parties in any criminal cases in the district court, would do well to employ Judge L. M. moulton, at once. He is making criminal cases a speciality. Charges reasonable and has a record of success second to no attorney in this part of the country.

Dan Ashby has a pair of heavy draft horses, and a good wagon for a e, cheap.

Norman Horses.

The undersigned will have his celebrated Norman Stock Horses, Frank and Louis Napoleon, during the season of 1876, at Franklin, for the benefit of those who may wish to use them. All lovers of good stock for road or draft purposes, are invited to call and see them. Their weight is, respectively, 1400 and 1500 lbs. and they are, of fine style. A. E. RICE, Franklin eb.

F. L. CROSS, W. W. ROBINSON.

Agricultural Implement Furniture Store

RIVERTON, NEBRASKA.

The undersigned have just received a good supply of farm implements, and will hereafter keep a full stock at all times, which they propose to sell at prices that will compete with railroad towns. They will also have a full line of Furniture at low prices. Cross & Robinson.

CLOSING OUT!!

Now is the time to buy Goods Cheap. I am selling out Panic Prices. Teas, Soaps, Brooms, Spices, Paints, Oil, Lamps, Glass, etc; Also a full stock of Drugs & Patent Medicines.

The best assortment of NOTIONS in the valley, consisting of Cutlery, Pipes, Pencils, Combs, Brushes, Pocket Books, Pins, Needles, Pomades, and Perfumery; including a select stock of Jewelry, and a hundred other things too numerous to mention. I am selling at CASH FOR CASH, so come and secure rare bargains before it is too late. Dr. E. M. RAZEE, Riverton.

Dr. Razez was up and made final proof on his homestead and began a contest against another, this week.

Exum Bond will build a house near that of Hon Webster Eaton's, the cellar for which is being excavated.

Messrs. Baker, Bonham, Stockton, Shaw and Mueker, from the eastern part of the county, were in at the Land Office this week and commuted their homesteads. Some of them will spend a short time in the Black Hills this summer.

Mr. Budlong of North Franklin, was in for a chat while in town this week. He reports favorably from that part of the county, and is confident of a large immigration this summer, in which line he is doing considerable.

Messrs. William Robinson and F. L. Cross, at Riverton, have formed a co-partnership, and will deal in agricultural implements and furniture; of the former articles they have good supply, which they propose to sell just as cheap as they be had on the railroad.

Mr. Thomas C. Buddington, of Leyden Mass., who left this county after the g. hopper raid two years ago, returned last week to his land, where he proposes to stay hereafter. He is a gentleman of considerable ability, and some practical experience in the printing office.

John R. Huffman and his wife returned from Iowa Wednesday night. They have been absent since last fall, and if you don't believe they are glad to get back to the land of freedom, just enquire. They were heartily welcomed by their friends in town.

For your stationery, envelopes and reading matter, remember the postoffice.

Palmar Way has sold his stock of hardware, at this place to J. J. Shaffer, who will have charge of that store in connection with his agricultural implement depot. Shaffer is a good business man and will be prompt and efficient with the public. Way will soon return to Lincoln.

Buck & Greenwood have a splendid lot of goods at their room now, of all description. Have you been in?

Dan Ashby has a pair of heavy draft horses, and a good wagon for a e, cheap.

Lumber! Lumber!! Lumber!!!

Cheaper than ever. We decided upon reducing the prices of lumber at this place to the following figures:
Com. Brds. all lengths $25 00
Joist and scantling 25 00
Sheeting 22 00
Shingles, $3.50 to $4.50, &c., &c., &c.

Strawberries, blackberries, raspberries, grapes, etc., grow well here, and Vancil has the best varieties for sale cheap. Invest a dollar or two and have something nice for your table in a short time.

School Meeting Dis l.

The annual meeting of School District No one, was called to order at 4 p. m., April 3d 1876, by Elias Haynes, Chairman. Report of treasurer of the district read and accepted.

The next business before the meeting being the election of treasurer, R. K. Hill and E. S. Chadwick were put in nomination and R. K. Hill having received a majority of all of the votes cast, was declared duly elected to that office for the term of three years.

The next business was the election of Director, and J. W. Deary was elected by unanimous consent, for the same length of time.

On motion a tax of ten mills was levied for the next ensuing year; four mills for teachers' wages and six mills for school house fund.

On motion it was decided to hold an adjourned meeting, on the first Monday in May, to consider the propriety of selling the present school house and building a larger one.

Moved that these minutes be handed to the Bloomington Guard.

On motion meeting adjourned to the first Monday in May. ELIAS HAYNES Ch'n.

New Millinery Goods.

Mrs. J. T. Kellogg has just returned from Toledo Ohio, and brought with her a choice assortment of Millinery goods, consisting of Hats, Ribbons, Flowers, Veils, &c., &c., which she will have at her residence near the Turkey Creek mill, and will sell them at prices to suit the times. Those who intend to purchase for the spring wear should call soon and get the first selections.
