Splendid growing weather now days, "Craps" look bully.

Geo. W. Dorsey began house keeping in F. A. Harman's dwelling in the north part of town the first of the week.

Judge Lucas of Republican City, was perambulating about town a day or two this week.

McDonald is a man of considerable business importance this week, or at least a good many are enquiring for him.

Downing will sell stoves two dollars cheaper than any other man in the country. 18

W. C. Holden filed articles of impeachment against the County Treasurer of Harlan county, and the case has been in progress for some days.

The new bridge over Republican City will be commenced at this week, and soon put to completion.

Mr. Thomas Tinkham, brother of the Tinkham Bros. of this place, came out from Beatrice the first of the week, and will stop with us the remainder of the season. He brought with him a good team of horses and wagon, which are to be put to actual service around J. L.'s homestead.

The Illinois Store to be filled with Goods.

Mr. Aaron May, for the last few years the largest dealer in general merchandise at that place was in Bloomington the first of the week and decided to put in a stock of goods at this place, and made all arrangements to that effect. He will occupy the Illinois Store, formally kept by Mr. F. M. Vancil, who has built up a nice little trade for the stock he carried but thought it best for the welfare of the town to have a larger stock of goods there than he could conveniently carry. Mr. May will open out in about one week, after which those who come to this place to trade will find anything they may wish at prices which will compete with any store in the valley.

Riverton.

Monday of this week we set out for Riverton, to see what the good people of that little burg and vicinity were doing, and to make ourselves more familiar with their acts. About noon we pulled up at the Elk Horn hotel and after partaking of a good dinner and shaking hands around we sallied forth to see the sights and hear the gossip. Our first place was at Uncle Fuller's store where several men were sitting around some of whom were trading considerable and Mr. F. looking pleased and good natured because a good trade was favoring him. Then at Mr. Lohff's we found another portion of the citizens and Mr. Charles spring, all the time at any rate. He has contracted for over one hundred acres of breaking for non-resident land holders in that precinct, some of which is already done and teams are at work doing the balance. He expects to succeed in getting a large amount broke ere the season passes. A great deal of new breaking will be done this season all over the county by farmers, and Grant precinct will not be far behind with her portion. On the whole we had a pleasant visit and hope to repeat it soon.

ED. GUARD.

SIR.—I honestly believe, that if some people were in Heaven, that they would find fault with the general arrangement of things there, and hence the reason, I suppose, that such people are apt to be debarred from entrance to it.

New comers, (men of yesterday) appears to find fault with our present weather, the lay of our country, want of aid and a thousand and one other trifling matters, which the old settlers who four, or five and two years ago, came here and fought it out; never think of. Such people, when they come, make it a rule, to try and create the impression, that they are composed of a finer material, than those who preceded them. They talk of "what fine prospects they had left behind them in the east." This country would never amount to anything, grasshoppers would always "eat them up" and wishing they were back again, (which wish, I for one would like to see granted, for they are not the kind of settlers we want in the Republican valley, but men and women, of nerve, grit and energy, capable of fighting difficulties and reverses, and appreciating prosperity when ever fortune favors them with the same.) until it is almost disgusting to hear them talk. I don't want it understood, that I include all new comers in this, for I am happy to say, that we are daily gaining a population of good steady sensible people, many of whom are filling the places of those discontented

Constitutional Convention.

LINCOLN, May 11th, 1875.

6 o'clock p. m., ED. GUARD:
Hon. J. L. Webster, of Omaha, is President of the Convention; Guy A. Brown Secretary, and C. L. Matther Assistant Secretary. Further election of officers deferred until morning. Hon. Fred. A. Harmon passed on his credentials and holds his seat for the present. Members all present—general good feeling prevails. Western members work solid. Con. adjourned.

Yours in haste, Z.

Mr. Harman has received notice that his seat in the Convention would be contested and a committee of five, namely Messrs. Harrington, Broady, Maxwell Guyer and Liard, were appointed, who are thorough lawyers, we believe, and will look into the merits of the case. The Convention so far shows ability in its action and a short session is expected.

I understand there is a person canvassing and selling the Buckeye Reaper, in and about Macon, in this county. I would just say to the farmers, that I have the exclusive right to sell those machines in this county, as my authority comes from R. L. Downing, of Lowell, who has the agency for this county. I would warn the farmers to not buy the machine of any other parties.

J. J. SHAFFER.

D. L. Ashby will soon be in his new building where he will have a cosy little office, and be ready to see all who may want any legal advice. Dan. has been one of our most successful lawyers and all those who have Dist. Court business, or any other in his line will do well to give him a trial.

Hon. Evan Worthing has been down in Otoe and Nemaha counties, and seen the young grasshoppers. He says they are not as bad as in '67 and that no serious harm is anticipated by them this season.

D. Van Etten is finishing up the plats of the McBride addition to Riverton.

The prairie is covered with beautiful flowers and the bouquets that are gathered by the lovers of nature's botanic productions are excelled by few of the well cultivated floral garden productions

Monday afternoon and night, were attended with fine showers of rain, which were hailed with a welcome by the growing crops.

Not a grasshopper-locust has made his appearance in this county so far this spring, and fears of their revisiting us the present season are fast vanishing away.

Spring flowers bedeck the green grass upon the "distant prairie."

Then at Mr. Lohff's we found another portion of the citizens and Mr. Charles Lohff behind the counter dealing out the goods from the large stock, and learned that his brother was east buying the spring goods. He has also been back to the "Bagger" State, and was expected in Wednesday with a large stock of new goods, for the summer trade. Then we made our way to the new harness shop, just opened by Mr. John Phillips, who we found a pleasant young man, who appears to be industrious and has a good stock of the material on hand and is a workman. He was turning out a complete new outfit for A. K. Kinnear, which was a good recommend for him. From this on, those who visit Riverton can get their harness repaired in good shape at a reasonable price. Next we went over to the addition where we "accidentally" found Wm. McBride, at the daily gaining a population of sensible people, many of whom are taking the places of those discontented ones, which is a good job. With those sensible people, common reason is allowed to be counsellor, which refers them to the past history of our eastern States, when in their early settlements, they had more to put up with in one season, than we of this Republican valley had during the last four years altogether. They say "the spring is late, the grasshoppers will come," but the spring is no later here, nor as late, as it is all over the east in the same latitudes, nor any later here than usual. I remember the first year I came here, (in the spring of 1871) that I planted corn on the sod on the 20th of June and gathered a good crop from the same that fall. We have had warm weather enough this, and last month, to hatch out the eggs of any grasshoppers (if there were any, which away.

Spring flowers bedeck the green grass upon the "distant prairie."

Several Buffalo have been seen in the eastern part of this county, during the last two weeks.

The frame for C. H. Walker's house is up and will be inclosed in a few days. It has a most pleasant location.

We have bought a large printing press for this office and shall change the GUARD to a four page six column paper in about two weeks, and give more room for home space.

P. Way, our hardware man, has received this week a large lot of goods in his line which with the former stock gives him the best lot of tinware, hardware and goods belonging to that class we have seen in the valley. Call in and look for yourselves, and get his prices.

Col. D. R. Anthony, Editor of the Leavenworth (Kan.) Times, was the victim of two pistol shots from Wm. Eubry, of the Appeal, Leavenworth, on the night of May 10th. Anthony cannot recover, and it is a most disgraceful affair.

The party by D. L. Ashby of last Tuesday eve, was one long to be remembered by the young people of this place. The company was not large, but well calculated to enjoy the festivities of such occasions, which were on this among the very best. The Judge and Johnson, made the music, which was excellent.

But the crowning feature to our part of the evening has not been told, for it was just across the way at about 12 o'clock, and consisted of a supper which one may expect at the hands of Mrs. Ashby, who has a peculiar knack of making everything palatable to everybody and this was one of her most successful efforts. The dancing stopped at an early hour, (we mean in the morning) but, the image of that long table is fresh yet, and we only wish that Jim. Blackledge had taken a place at the other end of the table, or not called on us to pass so much.

can get their harness repaired in good shape at a reasonable price. Next we went over to the addition where we "accidentally" found Wm. McBride, at the P. O. encased in a neat new building with a choice and well selected stock of groceries, just suitable to the wants of this country, which he says are marked down to the bottom prices, to suit the times. His goods are the finest lot we have ever seen in the county. Then we made the acquaintance of Mr. Harsch, who has just inclosed a building for a new tin shop and hardware store, which is in itself a credit to the addition, and will contain a nice little stock of goods when opened. Mr. H. is a practical workman and will attend to all repairing promptly and in a first class manner. The frame for Capt. Holdridge's building is up and part of the lumber for another building is on the ground, besides the foundation for Fuller & Wiant's store building, which is to be a two story with a good stone basement, and in which they will put a large stock of goods as soon as completed. On the old town site Vollintine has the foundation for a nice dwelling which will be pushed to completion in a few days and altogether things are on the move with our neighbors, this spring, and they may expect a nice little place the coming season. Sheppardson & Vollintine's mill, under the control of Rev. Thos. Muxlow, do the grinding for a large scope of country and will bring a good trade from the coming crop to that place.

Improvement is the watch-word in the town and country surrounding. Mr. J. R. Phillips who recently sold his claim just west of town, has purchased another north of Dr. Weston's and has the lumber for a new house which will be soon completed. Tree planting has received considerable attention, and besides those who have planted a good number for shade and ornamental purposes, Wm. Robertson planted 30,000, Dr. Weston 5,000, and Henry Robertson 10,000, which is evidence of thrift on their part and will at no distant day make their places valuable.

Esq. O'Sullivan is not asleep this the 20th of June and gathered a good crop from the same that fall. We have had warm weather enough this, and last month, to hatch out the eggs of any grasshoppers (if there were any, which I doubt) and cold damp weather enough afterwards to kill them, which is just what we needed, so that should there be any vestage of those creatures left we need not fear them, for the young brood in this valley are dead. I have paid some attention to the seasons in this country while I am in it, and from the present appearance of things, no better prospects for a good crop in the fall, have I seen yet, than I see this spring. Everything looks well and promising plenty rain. Wheat, oats and other small grain, are doing as well as we could wish them to do. Corn too, begins to make its appearance in good condition, and in fact vegetation generally, looks healthy and good. Under those promises of smiling nature, what occasion have we to find fault. As old settlers of Franklin county, we have had ample proof, as to the fertility of our soil. They are but strangers in the country, who have no experience in it, that find fault. It takes the sturdy old pioneer who understands the craft to have confidence in her, Stick and you will win.

O'SULLIVAN.

WOLF-DOGS.—A letter from Franklin county advises us of a peculiar circumstance in the neighborhood of Macon, in that county. A man named Martin is the owner of an immense dog of Newfoundland or some similar blood. Nearly all of last winter he had a habit of being absent from home, and was seen several times in company with a large gray wolf. A few days ago, while the last snow was on the ground, one of the citizens got up in the morning to find a lot of his fowls slaughtered. He knew by the tracks that it was done by a wolf, and he followed the trail to a hole in the ground some distance away. Procuring assistance he returned and dug out the lair, finding therein ten puppies, all bearing marks of color plainly showing Martin's dog to have been their paternal ancestor. The pups were all secured and are being raised by the people of the vicinity. Strange as is this incident, it is undoubtedly true. —Lincoln Star.

ED. GUARD.—In your issue of May 1st I notice a communication from T. Munhall, of Lowell, exonerating himself from all blame in regard to the appropriation of the grain belonging to this County and Kearney, claiming he had received no notice except that each farmer was to receive 68 bu—20 wheat, 20 oats, 20 barley and 8 of corn, and states that he had received 8,000 lbs of wheat (133½ bu) and that he sold part to pay freight on same, &c. Through the kindness of J. F. Trout, Sec'y Neb. Aid Society at Omaha, I hand you notices of shipment of grain and contractors names with instructions to R. R. Ag't at Lowell J. W. Miller, and T. Munhall of the same place, and of all these shipments we have received nothing. Can Mr. Munhall and Miller explain to the satisfaction of the people what has become of all of this grain and in the place of 8,000 pounds, was it not 44,160 lbs (736 bu of wheat) that you received?

I do not wish it understood that I am inclined to accuse or blame an innocent party, but we do claim that we are entitled to an explanation and have no doubt that Mr. Munhall can tell us all about it and perhaps show receipts for all he has received.
