LOCAL MATTERS.

Considerable wheat has already been sown in this county.

The county Surveyor is laying out the road over the river, up and down the valley.

Merchants complain of difficulty of getting goods from the railroad.

R. L. Downing has just opened a new Flour & Feed Store at Lowell. Best Flour in the market. 21

One good feature of the late election, was the total absence of actual strife for the first time since the organization of the county.

The commissioners propose breaking up the ground in the public square, preparatory to fencing and filling with trees. A good idea.

Fish hooks are called for.

Result of Election of Constitutional Delegate.

Fred. A. Harman Elected.

The returns of the election for a member of the Constitutional Convention for the counties of Franklin, Phelps and Gosper, on the 6th inst. have all been canvassed and the certificate of election given to Fred. A. Harman of this place. It was a close contest, Mr. H. leading Mr. J. F. Zediker but seven votes, in the three counties. Although Mr. H. was not our choice, and our sympathies and preferences were with the defeated party, we are frank to say that we believe Mr. Harman to be a man above reproach, capable to make an efficient representative and one that will acquit himself honorably and to the satisfaction of all his constituents.

We have been requested to republish the "Timber Culture Act," which was published some months ago, and, for the benefit of those who contemplate taking timber claims, we have done so. We would advise our readers to save the copy, as it may come handy some time. Persons that have taken timber claims must remember, that the leave of absence granted destitute homesteaders, is not extended to timber claimants.

The ladies of Blair turned out in force to elect their favorite city ticket. They worked and electioneered all day and at one ward were compelled to stand out of doors in the mud and rain. But after all, the lubbers of men up there could not see the point and beat their candidates by just a few votes. If this

Cady Sawyer, of Rebecca Creek, called on us last Wednesday. He reports that plowing and planting is going on briskly
on his side of the river.

Mr. C. A. Steward brought a sample of wheat to our office the first of the week, that came with the barley that was sent from California to this county.
It is a large plump grain, and the finest
we have seen for a long time.

H. S. Barum, of this place, had a curiosity the first of the week, in the shape of a "hair-lipped" colt. It had a well proportioned body and limbs, but the head was a curiosity to see. The right nostril extended clear to the eye,
and the lower jaw was of an unusual length. The colt appeared lively and healthy but finally gave up the ghost.
It is evident that dame nature mistook
H. S. for the illustrious P. T. Barnum, and when she found out her mistake,
quietly ended the colt's career.

Jud. Rich will give a grand ball at his hotel in this place on the evening of

after all, the lubbers of men up there could not see the point and beat their candidates by just a few votes. If this is only well advertised, the single ladies
at least will give that plan a wide berth
and no one would blame them for it.
We are inclined to believe that those Blair fellows haven't got horse sense.—

Plant Trees.

We advise everybody to plant cut trees. They can be had in the forest with no cost except a little labor, and you thereby enhance the value of your homestead and increase its beauty, and confer a favor upon the whole neighborhood. The possibilities are that this will be a season suitable to the growth of cions,
so let everybody see to it to put out a goodly number.

Mr. P. Way, our hardware merchant,

We urge upon farmers the necessity of preparing a hedge now around their farms. It will not be long until they shall have to depend wholly upon their own resources for pasture, and now is the time to start a hedge and be ready for the emergency.

The Saline lands at Lincoln containing the salt works, the title of which has been in litigation so long, have finally been decided to be the property of the State by the United States Supreme Court.

Gen. Funk, Post Master, at Lincoln Nebraska, and Mr. Roberts, of the same place, were in town this week.

Mr. E. W. Tinkham went to Lowell and Kearney this week to see about the government corn, oats, and wheat, that is to be sent to this county. A good many persons have ground ready for the seed, and more will have long before the seed can get here.

A paragraph, or rather a scientific article, is going the rounds of the press, stating that pneumatic tubes in Vienna send packages eight miles in two seconds. That is rather a tain story. A common newspaper, folded for mailing, if projected at that rate of speed, would penetrate a brick wall two feet thick before it could be checked inside of two seconds, and the heat evolved by the friction would melt the tubes quicker than a lamb can wag its caudal appendage.—Star.

Changed Again.

Having tried the experiment of publishing the Press as a morning paper long enough to ascertain that it does not work as well; that we are unable to get even as good reports as when we published in the evening and that it is attended with a greater expense, we have decided to backslide and resume publication of an evening paper. Mutilated Currency.

The Treasurer of the United States will soon issue a circular amending the regulation governing the redemption of United States currency, so that in cases of mutilation a deduction will be made in proportion to the part missing. In the case of legal tender notes, if less than one-tenth of the original proportion of the note (missing the mutilation will be disregarded. If one-tenth of the note is missing, the tenth of its face value will be deducted. If more than a tenth and less than a fifth is missing, the fifth of its face value will be deducted, and so on reckoning by tenths; but no note of which less than a quarter of the original is presented will be redeemed without evidence that the missing portion is totally destroyed. The same rule applies to mutilated fractional currency, with land so entered until the expiration of eight years from the date of such entry; and if at the expiration of such time, or at any time within five years thereafter, the person making such entry, or, if he or she be dead, his or her heirs or legal representatives, shall prove, by two credible witnesses, that he, or she, or they have planted, and, for not less than eight years, have cultivated and protected, such quantity and character of timber as aforesaid, they shall receive a patent for such quarter section or legal subdivision of eighty or forty acres of land, or for any fractional quantity of less than forty acres, as herein provided. And in case of the death of a person who has complied with the provisions of this act for the period of three years, his heirs or legal representatives shall have the option to comply with the provisions of this act, and receive, at the expiration of eight years, a patent for one hundred and sixty acres, or receive without delay a patent for forty acres, relinquishing all claim to the remainder.

SEC. 3. That if at any time after the filing of said affidavit, and prior to the issuing of the patent for said land, the claimant shall abandon the land, or fail to do the breaking or planting required by this act, or any part thereof, or shall fail to cultivate, protect, and keep in good condition such timber, then, and in that event, such land shall be subject to entry under the homestead laws, or by some other person under the provisions of this act: Provided, that the party making claim to said land, either as a homestead settler or under this act, shall give, at the time of filing his application such notice to the original claimant as shall be prescribed by the rules established by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and the rights of the parties shall be determined as in other contested cases.

SEC. 4.
