THOSE CONCERNED COUSINS, CITIZENS, ETC.:

It is my interest to protect our heritage, historical landmarks, cemeteries, their designation, and artifacts, within the County of Brunswick and the State of Virginia, from vandals, desecrators, and other means of destruction, in which we are faced with today.

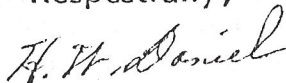

At present the Daniel Family Cemetery, of which most of us are descended is in great danger. This cemetery has been greatly desecrated, and left for the final blow of being no more. This cemetery contains those of our beginning in Brunswick County, which include the descendants of both, the Joseph Daniel and the Peter Daniel Families, and include their family descendants down to the early 1900's such as Andrew Daniel and Wesley Daniel Family's.

There is a suit in the circuit court of Brunswick County, between H. W. Daniel, acting in defense of, as plaintiff for the Daniel Family of the Daniel Cemetery, vs the Barrow Family, the heirs to the property, heir deed which has reservations to the said cemetery, and Hawthorne the Cutter of the timber for the Barrow Family, and in which the damage was done to the cemetery at this time of cutting the timber. The ~~timber trial court is November 1986~~, at the Brunswick County Circuit Court.

It is my request that you, and all the Daniel Family, as well as those interested in the historical, geneological, landmarks, etc. of the County of Brunswick, and the family's therefore, be present at this case to be held, ~~at 11:00 AM on November 1986~~, and support the causes with your presence, advice, moral support, and testimony or assistance in presenting the case if possible. Your support and aid will be greatly appreciated, by all the descendants for many generations to come, as they will reap the harvest from that which we sow.

You are the recipients and heirs to this family cemetery by deed. You can protect your rights by law. You can save this cemetery, and all the benefits for which it represents. PLEASE DO NOT THROW IT AWAY. PLEASE SUPPORT THE CAUSE.

Respectfully,

Horace W. Daniel
