

Family Bible of Dennis ETZLER & Ann Elisabeth DOLL

(Followed by the MUNSHAUR Records)

Dennis Etzler

These bible pages are transcribed, then followed by scanned copies of the original pages. Buddie Etzler found them, along with some photos, in a family bible he obtained from a sale somewhere in Virginia. He gave the pages and photos to Bernice Etzler Davis when he learned she was researching the family.

After the deaths of Dennis and Ann, their son Hamilton Etzler took the house in Libertytown and borrowed money to pay his siblings their share.

Perhaps that is when Hamilton came into possession of the family bible. Their family (Hamilton Etzler & Susanna Munshaur) was then recorded, along with a letter from Anna Elizabeth Etzler Buckey's Uncle Emanuel, which provided data on the Munshaur family.

Hamilton Etzler and Sue Munshaur were united together in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony by Rev. Brown, on May 4, 1881.

These photos were in the bible and it is believed they are Hamilton and Sue.

Dear Niece Enclosed
you will find all the births and deaths of our family and would of written more if I would of had any news to informed you of but as news is scarce I will cut my letter short and I would of written on another sheet of paper but thought it would be too much paper to fit in the envelope so I will have to excuse myself by promising to write more the next time this leaves us only tolerably well as for myself I just had a tooth drawn and it did not feel very good I tell you good bye love to all I remain as ever your Uncle E. Munshaw
