NOTICE SELECTIONS

CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER

1830 – 1861 ©2012 Judy J. Stebbins

Willoughby Ohio 398 pages

This is a chronological presentation of notices appearing in the Painesville (Ohio) Telegraph for the years 1830 – 1861 which allows users to access much of the newspaper information without the necessity of reading the microfilm copies. Included at the end of the book is a seven page listing showing the location of miscellaneous interesting articles.

Newspaper Notices included in this book:

Marriage, death, all legal notices (administrator, executor, guardians, sheriff's sales, divorces, dissolution of partnerships), historical interest and pioneer sketch articles, advertisements, some delinquent land tax lists, and any other notices that would be of interest to genealogical researchers. This is not a compilation of all newspapers articles in the Telegraph for these years; it is a selection and abstraction of information to aid genealogical researchers. These selections are supported by an alphabetical name index: Painesville Telegraph Microfilm Stebbins Index 1830 -1861, A – Z by Judy J. Stebbins (2012).

3,3 Died in this village last Friday (July 1), of pulmonary consumption, Mrs. Emeline, wife of Dr. S. Griffith, in the 35th year of age. Mrs. Griffith for many years previous to her death endured great suffering and pain which she bore with the utmost fortitude and Christian resignation. An affectionate husband and kind friends did all that human power could do to alleviate her sufferings and protract her stay on earth, but the insidious monster had got too powerful a hold of her constitution to be arrested by human power.

Mrs. Griffith died as she lived, a Christian, rejoicing in the Gospel of Christ and a lively hope of the blessed immortality. A few minutes before she breathed her last, while her weeping friends stood around her, she repeated to them the following passage of scripture and verse from Watts:

"Thus saith the Lord, prepare to meet thy God, for thou shalt die and not live..." 2 Kings, xx1.1 "That awful day shall surely come, The appointed hour made haste, when we must stand before our Judge and pass the solemn test."

Lyman Thurber and Lucinda Thurber:
Petition for divorce.

An act requiring all clergymen to keep records of all marriages performed by them, and all physicians, surgeons and midwives to keep a register of all births and deaths which they attend. It is the duty of these people to deposit this information in the county clerk's office in counties where marriages, births, deaths, occur before March 15 every year; covering 1 year starting March 1 last and the clerk shall deliver the same to the assessor of the several townships of each county.

It shall be the duty of the assessors while making their lists of taxable property, to ascertain and record in a list separate from the list of taxable property, all the births, marriage, and deaths occurring in their townships. They shall return said lists (birth, marriages and deaths) with the registers to the Clerk of Courts of Common pleas at the same time that they return their lists of taxable property. The clerks shall copy such lists and send to the Secretary of the State.

The Sec. of State shall prepare tabular lists, condensed, and have 2,000 copies made.

The county clerks shall forever carefully preserve the list of births, marriages and deaths and the registries of clergyman, etc. for the use of the public and which shall always be open for public inspection.

3,2 Dr. Stebbins, of this village, has left at our office a bottle of syrup of his manufacture from the Chinese sugar cane (sorghum). The article is of fair color, thick as the best of W.I. Molasses and of fair taste—though not as good in the last particular as other specimens we have seen. The Dr. obtained his syrup by boiling the stalks, which accounts perhaps for the raw taste of the stalk discernible in the syrup. The Dr., also, shows us seeds of the plant cut from the stalk a week since and very nearly ripe, settling the question of the ripening of the seed in this latitude.

3,3 History of the early settlement of LeRoy by Spencer Phelps. In 1860 a company of 6 or 8 persons from Chesterfield, Hampshire Co., Mass., purchased from the Connecticut Land Co., part of a township then known as New Connecticut—now known as LeRoy. The names were; Col. Amasa Clapp, Benj. Bates, Moses Kingsley, Nathaniel Edwards, Ebenezer Parson, and Benj. Parsons. In 1802 Samuel Lord, also, purchased part of the township. Col. Clapp sent two of his sons, Paul and Elah, and a hired man named Jonathan B. Russell to this area. In the fall, Elah returned home. Russell settled in Mentor on the place where O. S. Hodges now resides. He later removed to Lorain Co. where he probably died.

In 1803, Elah Clapp and I, returned to LeRoy. In 1804, Paul Clapp returned to Chesterfield and in the summer 1805, moved his family, being the first family that settled in LeRoy. That year, three young men—John and David French, and Charles Keneep—came on and took up land. In 1806, three families by the name of French and Chrisgan Keneep, settled in the township. The same year a child of Paul Clapp, age 4 or 5 years died. It was the first death in the township.

In 1808 Elah Clapp married Rebecca French. In Dec., 1808, I married Mary, daughter of Chrisgan Keneep. In 1809, three families—Bates, Reed and Gurney—settled in the township. Elah Clapp died in 1811,
