PAINESVILLE TELEGRAPH
Painesville, Ohio
J. H. Scofield, Editor and Proprietor

Office in Marshall's Block, Main St.

Jan. 1, 1880                      Thursday

p. 3 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hathaway celebrate their silver wedding anniversary New Year's evening.

Mr. John McMackin has disposed of his business in Chicago and for present is a citizen of Painesville.

Lieut. H. B. Steele, of the 19th U.S. Infantry, now stationed at Fort Leavenworth, is home on a short leave of absence. It is expected that the troops will be ordered to the Ute country, and Lieut. Steele is liable at any time to be recalled to duty.

Weather: After all, our Christmas was not a green one. Snow began to fall quite early in the morning, and before noon had buried the earth from sight. There were six to eight inches of snow Friday morning and "good snug winter weather."

Quite a number of our young people are home from college for the holiday: Miss Louisa Porter, from Elyria; Miss Libbie House, from Cleveland; Anson Bateham, from Columbus; Frank Griswold from Springfield; Chas. Loughridge from Yale, and Geo. Marshall, Elwin and Heber Little, J. S. Burrows, and Tracy Paine from Hudson.

A New Residence

Sexton Thomas Smith has just completed a new and fine residence located on Casement Avenue. He has been sexton of cemeteries in Painesville for thirty years. He was 73 years old on Dec. 26, 1879.

Death of a Former Resident

From the Grand Rapids, Mich., Daily Eagle, Dec. 26th, we find the notice that Mrs. Sanborn for many years a resident of Painesville, died. The funeral services were held Dec. 28th.

Mrs. Nancy Sanborn, mother of Mr. Geo. W. Allen, and Mrs. William T. Eaton, of this city, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Eaton, on the 26th instant, after a very brief illness, age nearly 88 years. The deceased lived in our city about 20 years. She had a most eventful and checkered life. She was born in Enfield, Hartford Co., Conn., May 14, 1792, her maiden name being Nancy Kingsbury. She was the youngest and last survivor of a family of ten children. She married Moses Allen 3rd, on Jan. 1, 1823, and four years later buried him, Mr. Geo. W. Allen of this city being her only child. Afterwards she moved to the wilds of the west settling in Painesville, Ohio, and then in 1820 she married Jonathan Sanborn. He died in 1828, leaving four children; but two to them. Mrs. W. T. Eaton of this city, and Mrs. Pardon O. Cook of Madison, O., surviving her. She has remained a widow over half a century. She supported herself and her family by sewing. She leaves three children, twelve grandchildren, and ten great grandchildren, most of whom live here. She has lived here since 1856 with her daughter, Mrs. Eaton.

Geauga County

O. R. Canfield, Postmaster at Chardon has resigned. He has held the office nearly eleven years. His successor is W. C. Parsons, well and favorably known to our citizens.

J. B. McGonigal, formerly of this place, and now postal clerk on the line from Kansas City to Denver, is visiting old friends. Geo. N. McGonigal, of Cleveland, is also here.

David Wheelock, who died in Hamden on the 11th instant, aged 87 years, was one of the pioneers of this county, having resided here about 64 years.

S. Brewster & Son have purchased the interest of Messrs. Downing & Smith in Bass Lake and are the sole owners of the property.

Sixty Years Ago

Sixty years ago this morning, Jan. 5th, my father, James Woodworth, with his family left his old home in Bolton, on the west shore of Lake George, New York, to find a new home in what was then the far west, and on the 25th of the same month arrived in Harpersfield, having made the journey in sleighs. One team remained here two weeks and then returned with good sleighing. I commenced to learn the mason trade, and for twenty-five years wherever I worked we generally had the whiskey bottle on the scaffold with us, and I was never intoxicated but once, and then the Doctor ordered it to stop the fever and ague. I found the prescription worse than the disease, both a poor and expensive remedy, and I have never repeated it since. Harvey Woodworth

Death of Leonard Case

Leonard Case Esq., of Cleveland, was found dead in his bed in his home on Rockwell St., the morning of the 6th. He had never been a man of robust health, and for some time had been quite an invalid. He was found by his cousin, William Rattle, who occupied an adjacent room. He was 60 years of age and had always been a resident of Cleveland being born in that city June, 28, 1820. He possessed large wealth left to him by his father. He made large donations to public enterprises and worthy objects, among them $30,000 in real estate to the Cleveland Women's Retreat; $15,000 to the Cleveland orphan Asylum; about 40 acres of land to the Industrial School valued at $12,000; several acres of land within the city limits to the Protestant City Hospital; $25,000 in cash to the Cleveland Library Association previous to giving the Case Hall Block to the same institution. Cleveland has lost a beneficent and good citizen. Rev. T. B. Wells, of St. James Episcopal Church, Painesville, officiated at the funeral. He was buried at Ere Street Cemetery where his father, mother, and brother are interred.

p. 3 Mr. Moses Thompson, of Perry, received a letter last Monday from Stowe, Vt., informing him of the death of a brother-in-law, Capt. Nathan Robinson, at the age of 94 years.

Jan. 15, 1880

Mrs. Fanny Barber died at the residence of her son, A. P. Barber, in Willoughby recently at the age of 88 years. Mrs. Barber was a highly-esteemed resident of Kirtland for a quarter of a century, having settled there with her husband in 1833. For the past twenty years, since the death of her husband, she has resided with her son in Willoughby.

Mr. D. Chram, died at his residence on Mentor Street last Saturday. The deceased was a native of Seneca Co., N.Y., and removed with his family to Willoughby in 1831. In 1838, he married Miss Anna G. Gordon and moved to Portage Co., in 1839, residing there eight years. Then he moved to Cincinnati, where for some 18 years he was engaged in the forwarding and commission business. Leaving there in 1866-1867, he has since resided in Painesville and Perry.

Mr. Levi Kerr, of this city has been appointed the administrator of the estate of Leonard Case, of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Brookins, with their little boy, happily surprised their friends and relatives by dropping in to see them New Year's at the small wee hour of one o'clock. Mrs. B. is a daughter of Mr. C. W. Stanhope, and a resident of Ionia, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Brookins received many calls while here and Master Arthur made many friends.

The Case Estate

The estate of Leonard Case, of Cleveland, just deceased is almost wholly in real estate and is estimated at from eight to ten millions. There being no will, the Leader gives the following statement as to the probable heirs. Leonard Case Sr. had one brother and four sisters. One of the sisters died without issue, leaving the other four of the heirs to inherit the estate. The brother is Mr. Zophier Case, of Carlisle, Ill., who will receive one-fourth of the estate. Mr. Levi Kerr and Mrs. L. K. Axtell, of Painesville, children of one of Leonard Case's sisters, will receive another fourth. The Misses Mary and Harriet Stevens, of Warren, for whom Mr. Case once built a beautiful residence on Mahoning Ave., Warren, and Mrs. Opdyke, of New York, daughters of another sister of Leonard Case Sr., will receive another fourth, and the remaining fourth will go to Mr. Bosworth, of Kansas, son of still another sister.

Home Again

Mrs. B. B. Park who a year ago was very out of health, benefited by a course of treatment at the Mineral Springs, Eaton Rapids, Mich. On Sept. 1st, she left home to attend the 25th wedding anniversary of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, of Pleasure Ridge Park, Ky., where she remained a full month. Her brother, Dr. S. A. Foss, also resides at the above place. Then she went again to Mineral Springs, Mich., remaining for three weeks. She made her son, B. A. Park, at Ringwood, Ill., a visit of a month and then went to Kewanee, Ill., to attend the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Parker, with whom she remained some two weeks, then home.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Harriet Shepard, wife of Deacon Harry F. Shepard whose death was mentioned last week, was born in New Hampshire in Aug., 1797. She moved to Ohio in 1823. She died in the early morning of Jan. 2, 1880.

Leaving Home

Miss Estella Smith, the popular Soprano, eldest daughter of A. G. Smith, is going to leave Painesville to accept a position as Soprano in the M. E. Church of Franklin, Pa. Her salary is very liberal.

The Foresters

About 260 of the Ancient Order of Foresters, members of Court Ivanhoe, Cleveland, visited Painesville Saturday night to aid in the organization of a Court in Painesville to be

Another Mean Theft

Some years ago, I had a photograph stolen from my photo album. It was a full-length photograph of my friend Mrs. John Tweddle, of Albany, N.Y., nee Warren, of Mentor, Ohio, just before she sailed for Europe. Mrs. Tweddle heard of the theft and said she was glad she had one duplicate left and sent it to me. This one I have been allowed to retain thus far. Mrs. J. Whitelaw, nee Paige, of this place gave me before her marriage a good photograph of her fine face with its happy expression. I knew and loved Alma Paige from the time she was a young girl. She has since died; this picture was one of my few treasures. Someone who knew her, in looking through my album has robbed me of what no money could have bought from me nor can replace. I beg the thief to give me back the photograph. Mrs. J. F. S.

Mr. Albert Griswold has had an addition to his family treasures, a little daughter.

Several deaths have occurred recently in the north part of the township. In the list are Mrs. Hitt and Mr. Baldwin, of the north Center.

Mr. W. H. Genung has erected on his premises a wind mill of his own invention and manufacture.

North Madison

Mrs. Frank Viets, of Decatur, and Mrs. Chas. Dow, of Sand Beach, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Harriet Dow.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, of Cleveland, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Dayton, of LeRoy, also a son and daughter of Rev. Joseph Albertson, of New York state, came to North Madison, January 9th to attend the funeral of Mrs. Cynthia M. Hitt, who died January 7th after a brief illness of congestion of the lungs. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. Rufus B. Dayton, of Madison. She leaves a husband, Mr. Cornelius R. Hitt, her parents, and a brother Mr. Sherman Dayton, of LeRoy and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Albertson. Mrs. Hitt was born in Montville in 1828 and has always lived in this vicinity. When living in Montville 11 years ago, the family was afflicted with diphtheria, causing the death of their two children, a son and a young married daughter, Alice, then the wife of Mr. John Mitchel, since deceased. Mrs. Hitt's deep affliction, the loss of her children, cast a shadow of gloom over her mind for two years, bordering on insanity. After her partial recovery, Mr. Hitt bought their present home on the North Ridge.

Va., at the home of the bride in Warren, on the 15th. The Austin family is one of the oldest and best known in Northern Ohio. The groom, Mr. Pendleton, is the son of President Pendleton of Bethany College, West Virginia, and a grandson of Bishop Alexander Campbell. Among the guests were Senator James A. Garfield and son from Washington. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among them a complete set of Scott's works from Mr. and Mrs. Garfield.

Mayor R. M. Murray, who went to Piqua some time since, has become established with the Piqua Handle and Mfg. Co., in which he is a partner and manager. He will be moving his family to Piqua in the spring, to the regret of many friends in Painesville and vicinity.

Obituary

We clip the following obituary from the Marion (Ohio) Independent, of Jan. 8. Mrs. Bouton, was for many years a resident of Painesville, leaving here about nine years ago, and was a sister-in-law of our townsman, Mr. R. F. Benedict.

Mrs. Emily Bouton, whose maiden name was Hanford, was born at New Canaan, Conn., June 3rd, 1803, and died at Marion, Ohio, Dec. 20th, age 71 years, 6 mos., 26 days. On Oct. 18, 1826, she was married to Harvey Bouton, who preceded her by 18 months into the spirit land. She leaves an only child, the wife of our townsman, Mr. A. H. Kling. During the past 10 years, she has lived in this place, where she has been esteemed and beloved by many friends. Following the death of her husband in June, 1878, she seemed to lose all desire to live longer.

Willoughby Plains

Mr. Hugh Atkinson has sold his farm to H. Talbot and intends, I believe to go west.

Mentor, Jan. 19, 1880

The remains of Mrs. Lawrence, wife of D. C. Lawrence of Kirtland, were brought to Mentor and placed in the vault. She died of a brief illness the Tuesday previous.

Thompson

Jan. 6, John George Keener died at the age of 76 years. He came from Baden in Germany in 1847, and settled in Thompson east of the Ledge, where he cleared all the heavy timber away on 25 acres and built a house, barn, and other buildings. One son and two daughters came with him. His wife died in March, 1875, since which time the old gentleman has lived alone, the daughters coming to aid him as much as they could from their families. His son, C. L. Kenner, took the remains to Madison, where he intends removing those of the mother soon.

Mr. Anson Bartlett died Jan. 11th, at the age of 50. We always claimed him since he was born and raised in Thompson, though for convenience of location his house was a few years since moved to stand on the west side of the town line in LeRoy. His father came to Thompson in 1808, lived on the same farm, and died Dec., 1877, at the age of 78.

Sidney Bostwick died at age 63 years on Sabbath evening. He was born in Tully, N.Y. and came here with his father Shelburn Bostwick, when near four years of age and has since resided here most of the time. He leaves three sons and four daughters.

On the morning of Jan. 13, Mrs. Emily Jackson wife of John Jackson, died making four deaths in the township in the first half of January. This only occurred one time before on Sept. 11, 1861, when there were four: Capt. Geo. Moseley, age 67, Charles Ober, 32; Samuel Barrett, 23, Otto G. Leonard, 5.

Madison

North Madison, Jan. 19, 1880

Death has again visited this place and taken from our midst Mr. Rodmond N. Baldwin, who died the 12th instant, with congestion of the lungs. Mr. B. was born in Litchfield, Conn., in 1824, and moved with his parents to Montville, Geauga Co., where he lived on a farm until 17 years of age, then went to Painesville and learned the tanner and currier's trade. In 1845, he married Miss Betsey E. Multer, of Huntsburgh, and settled in Montville, where he carried on the business of his trade, then moved to North Madison in 1854 and bought a farm which was his home at the time of his death. The deceased leaves a wife, two married daughters, Mrs. Thomas Brotzman and Mrs. Ed C. Corlett.

Mr. Wm. M. Miller, who has been spending a few weeks in Painesville and Madison is to start for Iowa the present week.

Miss Gracie Gill, of Des Moines, Iowa is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Horace Pettis, who has been visiting Capt. D. Pettis and his sister, Mrs. George Haywood, is to return to Wisconsin the present week.

Mr. H. E. Kellogg and S. Swetland went to Cleveland the 14th to hear Colonel R. G. Ingersoll lecture. The colonel many years ago was a resident of North Madison, his father at the time being pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place. Robert was a free thinker from his earliest childhood and never endorsed his Father's creeds and greatly questioned the foundation of their authority.

p. 2 Silver Wedding

In the Faribault, (Minn.) Democrat of the 16th instant, we find the following notice of the observance of the 25th marriage anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Wilson, formerly of this city which was celebrated last Saturday evening. The three daughters, Misses Lizzie, Hattie and Carrie conceived and secretly carried out the idea of inviting a number of guests to be present to enjoy the occasion with them. After dinner, the dining room was cleared of surplus furniture and Monie Musk, Virginia Reel and other good old dances of a quarter of a century ago were enjoyed. Hudson Wilson and Miss Sara B. Pease were married at Painesville, O., Jan. 10, and the following spring moved to Madison, Wisconsin, where they remained two years. In 1857, they came to Faribault, Mr. Wilson engaging in a banking business he had followed to the present time on the same ground now occupied by the Citizens national banking house, of which institution he is the President. Three children have been born to them: Lizzie L., Hattie, and Carrie S., all natives of Faribault.

Death of Dr. Stebbins

Again, to the living comes the startling verification, in the sudden and unexpected death of Dr. Loren Clark Stebbins, that "in the midst of life we are in death." While he was apparently in the full vigor of manhood, leading a busy, useful life; devoted to the calls of his profession to which the best powers of his intellect were faithfully wedded, a good citizen, kind husband and father, a faithful Christian in the church and out of the church, his work on earth was suddenly terminated by the paralyzing hand of death on his warm true heart, calling him to rest from his labors. Those who knew him best will not doubt that the angels whispered in his dying ear, "Well done good and faithful servant, welcome to the mansion prepared for you in our Father's House." Were it not for his grief-stricken family and sorrowing friend's, who in mercy to him, could wish that he had lived longer to suffer more? The loss of those to whom he was most near and dear is Heavenly gain to him. Dr. Stebbins was generally known throughout Lake and Geauga Counties as a physician of note, having an extensive practice and to many families his loss as a friend and physician will seem irreparable, to such every incident of his passing away will be a matter of deep interest. Thursday evening, Feb. 12th, he visited the daughter of Mr. C. Patterson who was ill, prescribed for her, remaining from 15 to 20 minutes, complained of severe pain in his chest, said he would get home as soon as he could. Mr. Patterson lives one door west of the Congregational Church. Dr. Stebbins started for home, got as far as the lamp post near Mr. Stacy's (the next house) took his medicine case from his coat pocket and took medicine; feeling that he could go no further he retraced his steps. On the porch, he fell against the door bursting it open and falling across the threshold. Mrs. Patterson called Mr. Stacy to her assistance. A pillow was placed on the floor under his head until help could be had to lift him to a lounge. Mr. Frank Stebbins was sent for and reached the house in about ten minutes. As he entered Dr.

Stebbins took his hand looking anxiously at him and exclaimed, "Oh, Frank!" His son asked "Father, is it you head?" "No." "Your lungs?" "No; it is my heart." Mr. Stebbins then administered a powerful sedative asking him if he could suggest anything better, he said "No, you are doing all that can be done for me." When he asked him if another physician should be called he answered, "No, I trust all to you." Mr. Stebbins, however, well as he knew what his father's treatment in such a case would be, thought best to have counsel and Dr. Grauel and Dr. House were summoned, the latter not reaching the house until a few minutes after Dr. Stebbins expired. Dr. Stebbins suffered extremely with pain in the region of the heart, and was unable to lie down but a few minutes at a time. Next to the last time his son raised him in his arms, he felt his own pulse and said, "I think I shall be better soon, I will see if I cannot lie down again; the pain returning almost instantly he said, "I am going to have another of those terrible spells;" they raised him from the lounge, his son left him for a moment to step to the table near at hand for medicine, and as he turned to him again found he was struggling with death, and soon after he breathed his last. Previous to this his son asked if he should send for mother, he replied not yet, but a little time after, said "You had better send someone home to let them know I am ill." His younger son, Clarence, reached Mr. Patterson's soon after his father died. The sad intelligence was conveyed to the bereaved wife and received by her in the home which her beloved husband had left scarce an hour before, and where they had enjoyed so much of happiness together.

Dr. Stebbins was born in Chardon, Ohio; his early years were passed in Geauga Co. He chose the art of healing for his profession and studied medicine with Dr. S. Griffith for a time, continued his studies in the Philadelphia Medical College, and graduated from that institution. Dr. Stebbins was twice married; his second wife was the daughter of Dr. S. Griffith, a former resident of Painesville. Dr. Stebbins has resided in Painesville over thirty years; of his own household his wife and two sons, Frank E. and Clarence E. are the only survivors. If the deep sympathy of those amongst whom they dwell can afford any consolation in the dark hours of the great affliction which has fallen so heavily on them, they need no assurance that it is theirs. They know, too, that "the Father loveth whom he chasteneth." Dr. Stebbins was 61 years of age in November last. He was a man of much public spirit, interested in everything pertaining to the interest of the place he had chosen for his home. He was a trustee and a liberal supporter of the Disciple Church, of which he had been a member nearly forty years; he was also trustee of the Young Men's Christian Association in this place, and by them his memory will be reverently cherished. The funeral services took place at the family residence on Mentor Ave on Sunday, Elder N. M. Bartlett of the Disciple church officiating. A large concourse of friends was in attendance and followed his remains to Evergreen Cemetery where they were deposited in the vault.

Feb. 19, 1880

On the Plains

In a late number of the Manhattan, Kansas, Nationalist, we find the following notices of the enterprise of our townsman, Gen. Casement, in the creamery and stock raising business on his large ranch in that vicinity:

Creamery

General Casement will soon erect a building for a creamery, on or near the old Juanita town site to be run by Leroy Clark. The General has between one and two hundred milch cows and intends to try the experiment of bringing up his calves on skimmed milk and feed. He, also, intends to bring out a Holstein bull and some Holstein cows, believing that breed to be the best for milk and beef combined.

Will Raise Mules

General Casement will put 100 fine brood mares on his farm this spring, quite a number of which have already arrived. He has purchased a jack in Kentucky and is negotiating for another from Spain, both of which will be along soon, and he will then go to raising mules on a large scale.

Obituary

Died on Feb. 11, at one o'clock p.m. at his late residence in Madison Village, Lake Co., Harlow Bailey, age 87 yrs., 7 mos., 22 days. Esq. Bailey was born in Winsted, Conn., June 19, 1792, and moved to Vermont in 1804. He moved from there to Unionville, Lake Co., Ohio, in the fall of 1819, and resided there 21 years. He moved from Unionville to Brunswick, Mo., and resided there three years, when he returned to Madison and spent a few years on what is called the Dock Road, and then came to Madison Village where he has since resided. He was married to Apphia B. Emory, at Lindon, Vt., Dec. 5th, 1816, and they have lived together 63 yrs. 2 mos., 6 days. She still survives her husband. They have four children living—three sons and one daughter; seven grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren. He was a soldier in the War of 1812 serving on the Canadian frontier and drew a pension. He was four times elected Justice of the Peace in Unionville. He was once elected Justice here, but due to age declined a re-election. Madison, Feb. 16, 1880

How the Pioneers Worked

In sketches of the early history of South Ridge, in the Conneaut Reporter, we find the following account of the pioneer life of Mr. Ezekiel Colby, who moved with two daughters and two sons from Massachusetts to Conneaut in Feb., 1817. The sons, George and John, were aged respectively 14 and 10. Having contracted of Mr. Fifield for one hundred acres at $5. per acre, the present farm of George Colby, the family moved on to it March, 1818. All their supplies had to be transported over an overland route, and the cost was immense. Mr. Colby paid nine dollars for their first barrel of salt. At the end of the first year, he could not make any payment and went to Mr. Fifield to give up the land. But the Colonel responded that Mr. Colby should have a longer time. Mr. Colby entertained fears of making another trial, but concluded to do it, provided he could have five years in which to make his payments. With this arrangement, the boys, George and John, undertook the task. They cut one hundred cords of wood at twenty cents per cord. They sold two cows at ten dollars each and thus, paid forty dollars at the end of the first year. They were more fortunate than they had expected, for they canceled the last note at the close of the third year.

Feb. 26, 1880

p. 2 Pioneer Sketches

One that may be counted among the pioneers of Mentor is Erastus Root. As the result of an interview with him last July, he informed me that he was the son of Jonathan and Lovina Gillett Root, and was born in Hebron, Tolland Co., Connecticut, April 11, 1803. His ancestors, paternal and maternal, were among the early settlers of Connecticut. Thomas Root was in Hartford in 1638, and the name of Nathan Gillett is on the records of Windsor, Connecticut, in 1640, and probably were the ancestors referred to above. Mr. Root said his father removed his family from Hebron to Franklin, Delaware Co., N.Y., when he was young, or about 1806, and about 1811 or 1812, he moved the family further west, settling about a mile east of the then small village of Buffalo. He had his house burned by the British and the Indians. This misfortune induced him to pack up his effects and move back to Hebron, his native place. Not feeling disposed to remain in his native township, his father moved the family to Syracuse, where his father died. Jonathan Root was in Lake Co., in 1808; he was a half-brother of Erastus. He settled in Mentor, where he spent the remainder of his life. He died in 1864. Jonathan Root was employed by Abraham Tappan to assist in surveying a narrow strip of land between the east line of the Firelands, and the west line of the Connecticut Land Company, east of the Cuyahoga River and the Portage Path. This surveying was done in 1808. Erastus Root with his brother, Jesse arrived in Mentor, May 12th, 1816; he was thirteen years and one month old. He lived with his brother, Jonathan three years, and being 16 years old, as he expressed, he went to work for himself. He worked two years for Elder Warren Goodell, Esq., Joseph Sawyer, and others, and cleared the land by the job, and worked one summer for Isaac Baxter and bought 45 acres of land for $1 per acre. He has since purchased of Uriel Holmes Jr. an original proprietor of Mentor Township, 145 acres. He was married to Miss Rebecca Tuttle, and is now living with his second wife, and has a family of seven children.

In my last communication respecting Mrs. Hopkins, the following was left out by mistake. "She was born in Homer, Cortland Co., N.Y., April 9, 1804, and in March, 1819, moved to Auburn, Geauga Co. by C. C. B (C. C. Bronson) Feb. 14, 1880

Charles Ropert, an engineer in the Thornton Shaft, near Ohlton, in Trumbull Co., fell down the shaft one night last week, a distance of 120 feet, and was instantly killed.

Mrs. Mary Weed Baker died at her residence on Jackson St., age 92 yrs., 5 mos. The deceased was the mother of Miss Phebe Baker in whose care she been for some years past, and also, of Captain Geo. O. and Wm. K. Baker.

His return to the Plains at this time is mainly for the improvement and re-establishment of his health. Other members of his family, or at least another son, will follow him soon, and several well-located farms will be secured. Should the climate prove as favorable to Mr. Wright's health as last season, it is more than probable that he will not return to reside permanently in this county.

Woodland Orphan Asylum

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lovelace, of Mentor Plains, have adopted a little girl, an orphan from the Cleveland Woodland Orphan Asylum. They have been very lonely since the death of their adopted daughter.

Augustus Skinner

He had made his home continuously on the farm on which he died for 75 years. He came into the country with his father's family, Capt. Abraham Skinner, in March, 1805. They came all the way from their former home, East Hartford, Connecticut, in sleighs, traversing Lake Erie on the ice all the way from Buffalo to near Fairport, and moved into a log cabin on the site of his late home. During the season his father built the main frame of the house in which his nephew, H. H. Hine, now resides, where his father and mother died, and where his funeral services were held. His education after coming to Ohio was principally acquired in Youngstown where he attended school for some time, boarding with his brother-in-law, Homer Hine, attending what was in those days called an excellent select school, in a log building situated where the Soldier's Monument in that city now stands, on the Diamond. He was born July 7th, 1798, died Feb. 25, 1880, being nearly 82 years old.

Death of a Former Citizen

Last Monday, Mr. Collins Morse received a letter announcing the death, at his residence in Hampton, Iowa, of Mr. John Gould. For many years, he was a resident of Painesville, his home being on the North Ridge, in the neighborhood of Mr. R. Marshall's. He went to bed and did not rise the next morning. His age was probably about 85 years.

Returned to Painesville

Dr. Charles M. Hawley, son of Rev. E. H. Hawley, formerly of this place and pastor of the Disciple Church, has returned to Painesville to locate permanently for the practice of his profession. Dr. Hawley graduated at the Eclectic Medical College, of Philadelphia, and afterwards spent a year in Europe, adding largely to his professional skill and knowledge. He was for four and a half years Assistant Physician at the Newburgh Asylum, and for three years has been located at Bedford, where he has had a large and successful practice.

Surgical Operation

A surgical operation was made Thursday of last week to remove a tumor of the mammary gland of Mrs. Hodges, wife of J. B. Hodges, of Concord. The tumor had been of rapid growth and weighed six pounds and six ounces. Dr. Cowles of Chardon the regular attending physician, called to his aid Dr. G. J. Jones, of Cleveland. Dr. P. M. Cowels, of Chardon, Dr. Geo. Storm Jr. of Willoughby and Drs. Geo. Collister and F. B. Monroe were also present. The patient was under the influence of chloroform during the operation which occupied nearly an hour. Later—We learn that the patient has since died. She was 67 years old.

Concord

Another old resident has passed away. Miss Jeanette Winchell died Feb. 25, age 71 years, after a long and painful illness. She came with her father and family from Winstead, Conn., in 1817, and arrived in Concord Aug. 8. She had an attack of rheumatism when twelve or fourteen years old from which she never recovered.

Geneva

F. R. Smith, a lawyer of Windsor, has removed to Geneva and has opened an office in Hunt's block over the Post Office.

Middle Ridge

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fowler and daughter Cora returned on Tuesday last from a visit to Mr. Fowler's father and sister in Michigan.

South Madison

Most of the sick ones are improving. Dan Williams is very sick; he is nearly 84 years of age. His sister, Aunt Wright, as she is called, is about through with this world. If she lives a few days longer, she will be 90 years of age.

Last Friday, the 27th ult., a birthday party was held at the residence of W. H. Stocking, it being his birthday and also that of his eldest son, living at the Center of Thompson. Two years ago, a birthday party was held at the same place, the son then being half as old as the father.

Willoughby

Sudden and unexpected deaths are constantly occurring this winter. News came Saturday of Mrs. Z. Covert's death, after a short illness. The sad intelligence of Mrs. Hodgson's death in Virginia was not quite unexpected, her health having been poor many months.

Married

At the residence of the bride's parents, in Painesville Feb. 24, Mr. Orlando Coons, of Hambden, to Miss Ellen Stebbins, of Painesville, Ohio.

New England origin, descendants of those wonderful men who landed upon Plymouth Rock. They determined to establish a Church of God in this new place.

The names of the twenty-four:

Justin Ware
Fanny Ware
Eunice Ware
Sidney L. Brewster
Marshall Brewster
Mary A. Brewster
Theodocia Brewster
Andrews Merriman
Grata Merriman
Lucinda Pease
Harriet Goodrich
John Isham
Mary Brooks
Abraham Clark
Nancy Clark
Benjamin Scoville
Lydia White
Samuel L. Collins
David White
Rebecca Talcott
Polly Kimball
Clarissa Cole
Anna Cady
Tamor Ely

Three of this number are still living: Mrs. Mary A. Brewster Raymond, of Bowling Green, Ohio; Mr. Abraham Clark, of Hambden, Ohio; and Mrs. Grata Merriman, of Madison.

Let us go back a moment. In 1830, the date of the organization of the Church, Rev. Ruben Tinker sailed from Boston as a missionary of the American Board to the Sandwich Islands. Having labored there successfully for ten years, he returned to this country, reaching it in 1841. Soon after his return he came to Madison to visit his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wood. As we were without preaching, he was invited to occupy the pulpit on Sunday. The people liked him and he preached to this church and Unionville for six months; eventually becoming its Pastor. Mr. Tinker continued with us until Sept., 1845 when he received a call from the First Presbyterian Church of Westfield, New York. Rev. Mead Holmes was the successor of Mr. Tinker.

(The history of the church is given and the membership lists.)

p. 3 Mr. George Willard, an old and prominent merchant and business man of Ashtabula, died Tuesday afternoon, age 68 years. The late great decline in goods, and property, compelled Mr. Willard, like many others to make an assignment last year, which it is believed preyed upon his mind and hastened his death.

Mrs. Lucy Tombs, of Ashtabula, is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. Sanderson, at the Willard place, corner of State and Erie Streets. Mrs. Tombs is the daughter of Mr. Julian C. Huntington, one of Painesville's oldest, highly respected citizens. For the past few years Mr. Huntington has resided in Ashtabula with his daughter, Mrs. Tombs.

Mr. Byron D. Beckwith, of Lodi, California, formerly of Concord, in this county and brother of Mrs. M. J. Warner, arrived in Painesville a day or two since, and will probably remain a couple of weeks. His mother, now residing with her daughter, Mrs. Warner, expects to return with him to California.

Mrs. Moore, whose death is briefly announced by our Willoughby correspondent, was the wife of Isaac Moore, formerly of Mentor, father of C. H. Moore, now a prominent citizen and banker of Iowa.

Death of a Worthy Printer

Mr. Roy F. Grenney, age 27 years, died in Painesville at the residence of his grandfather, Mr. R. F. Benedict, last Sunday, of consumption. Mr. Grenney was born in Painesville, but with his father removed to Saginaw when quite young. He lived several years in Jackson, Mich., going from there to Colorado, where he lived for some time removing then to Chicago, where he resided until four weeks ago, when he returned to Painesville; where he died as above stated. His remains were deposited in the vault in Evergreen Cemetery.

In Memoriam

Died March, 1, 1880, at her residence in Concord, Lake Co., O., age 67 years, Juliette Hodges, wife of J. B. Hodges. The deceased was born Feb. 28, 1813, at North Adams, Berkshire Co., Mass.; her mother died when she was only three weeks old, after which she was adopted by Samuel and Rebecca Veazie of the same township, with whom she lived until her marriage. She was married to J. B. Hodges (who survives her), Sept. 16, 1830, and resided in the same township until they moved to Mentor, Lake Co., in August, 1837, and remained there until Feb. 10, 1838 when they moved to Concord and lived upon the same farm until her death. She had two children, Irwin H. Hodges, who resides in Concord, and one daughter, Emerett, who is the wife of W. T. Cowles, formerly of Chardon, Ohio. She died after a surgical operation to have a tumor removed.

South Madison

Foster Sterns has purchased a farm near KawKawlin, Michigan.

The widow of the late I. S. Stocking is visiting friends in South Madison; she resides with her sister, Mrs. Lucius Fowler of Munson Geauga Co.

Middle Ridge

The funeral services of Mrs. Norton, wife of Mr. Joel Norton, of Madison Dock, were attended yesterday at her late residence.

Mr. John A. Winchester, age thirty, died Saturday morning at the house of his father, Mr. H. Winchester. The deceased has been an invalid since his return from Germany, about a year and half ago.

Dr. E. D. Warner and Miss Maria Crandall were married last Wednesday at the residence of Mr. S. G. Mack.

Willoughby Plains

Mr. Wm. Downing and family started on Tuesday for his home in Missouri. He came here for his health something over a year ago.

Mr. Albert Perry has a new baby boy, and Mr. Chauncey Scribner a new baby girl.

Willoughby

Betsy, wife of Squire Moore, age 76, died suddenly. She was widely known in the county, having lived in Mentor many years before moving here.

George Manley, formerly Director of the County Infirmary for several years and a resident of this county for 47 years, died on the 3rd instant, age 69 years.

Golden Wedding

Just fifty years ago March 1, 1830, Mr. Eri Thompson married Miss Julia A. Barto, of the town of Islip, Long Island, N.Y. A goodly number of old and young, relatives and neighbors gathered to celebrate with them. Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield were present at the party, and they have passed their 60th wedding anniversary. There were six persons present this evening who attended the first wedding: Mr. D. K. Post and wife, Mr. Alex Barto and wife, and Mr. A. C. Barto and his sister, Mary, now Mrs. Ezra Mason.

Death of an Old Resident

Mrs. Emeline Fifield died at her residence in Fairport last Friday, March 12, age 80 yrs. She was one of the old residents of Painesville. In 1824, she was "landlady" of the old American House, at the foot of Main St., and afterwards of the Fifield House, on Erie St., now occupied as a residence by Mr. C. Huntington.

Obituary

Daniel Gates, a highly-esteemed citizen of Bristol, Ohio, departed this life at his residence on March 8, 1880, age 72 years. The deceased was a native of Genesee Co., N.Y., born in 1807. In early life, he moved to Ohio, residing first in Farmington, and in 1857 moved to Greene, then to Bristolville, where for the last eight years he lived respected by all. The surviving members of his family consisting of Mr. Freeman Gates, Mrs. Rev. J. B. Corey, of Painesville, and Mrs. Dr. Pond, of Bristol, were present to each of whom he made an affectionate farewell.

Obituary

Sherman Foote, an old resident, passed from life at his residence on Richmond St., in this city, on March 11, 1880, age 75 ½ years. He was born in North Adams, Mass., Sept. 21, 1804, the fourth child of Aaron Foote and his wife, Jedidah Sherman who was a first or second cousin of Roger Sherman of Revolutionary fame. His father, Aaron, was a man of great force and vigor, originally a wagon maker by trade, but afterwards an extensive farmer and woolen manufacturer, and amassed a considerable fortune, which he afterwards lost in the financial crisis that followed the war of 1812. After turning his attention to mechanics, he became the inventor of the original threshing machine. Another seized his idea and obtained a patent. Sherman Foote was married July 4, 1825, at

Gone West

Mr. Horace W. Allen left here Monday to improve his quarter land section, 8 miles west of Lincoln, the capitol of Nebraska, taking with him three horses, his household goods, and building materials accompanied by a young man, a son of Mr. John Malin of this place, who if he likes the country will buy himself a farm there. His wife and sister, Miss Mattie Churchward, will go there as soon as he gets his house built, which he expects to have ready for use by June.

Early Days

The Ashtabula Sentinel says that in 1828 Ansel Udell, of that place, carried the mail from Unionville, in this county, to Meadville, Pa., the route embracing eleven offices; at which time Mr. Tappen was the Postmaster at Unionville. His contract was for a stage line, but the roads were so bad that about half the year he carried the mail on horseback. He was sub-contractor under Eliphael Austin. When he had carried it about a year, Mr. Austin had all his contracts taken from him and John P. Converse, of Parkman, Ohio, got them. In May 1st, 1830, he took a new contract of Converse on the same terms. Although he had not many passengers to make it profitable, he made considerable by errands, as all the inhabitants east of Jefferson had to send to Jefferson or Meadville for their store goods and whisky.

Birthday

Sudden Death

Mr. S. B. Greene died very suddenly last Thursday at the residence of his son, S. W. Greene, on Prospect St. He complained of severe pain in his chest and shoulders and a numbness in his arm. He did not want to call for a physician thinking he might feel better; he died later that night. Mr. Greene had been a resident of Madison, this county, for seventeen years prior to 1863, when he removed to Painesville where he has since resided. He was 71 years old.

Removal

We are very sorry to announce the removal of our townsman, Mr. J. F. Scranton, with his family to Geneva. They are old residents of Painesville.

Gone West

Mr. S. E. Carter, an old resident of Painesville, and well known through all this section as connected with the cheese business for many years, left for the West last week to engage in wheat raising. We believe his destination is in the vicinity of Fargo, Dakota, where we are informed he has four hundred acres of choice land, especially adapted to wheat. He took with him nine good horses with which to commence his work.

Obituary

Mrs. Lucy Lockwood, widow of the late Thomas C. Lockwood and an old resident of Perry, died March 9, 1880; she was fifty-nine years old. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bachelor and was born in Madison Township in the year 1820. A few years later the family moved to the north part of Perry and in 1837, Mrs. Lockwood was married to Thomas C. Lockwood. They purchased a farm on the lake shore and at this place she lived up to the time of her death.

Another Anti-Slavery Pioneer Has Fallen

Deacon Horace Ensign died at his residence in Madison, Lake Co., Ohio, April 6th, after an illness of a few hours; he was 87 years old. He was born in Dalton, Mass., and removed to Madison in 1812, where he resided until his death. In 1838, he entered the anti-slavery agitation which was then in its infancy. He helped to organize the old Liberty party which was the first outgrowth of that agitation, and in 1840 cast the only vote for James G. Birney. His house was the resort of leading anti-slavery men. He was the warm personal friend of Theodore Weld, Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, and Hon. Edward Wade. He took a very active part in the rescue of Milton Clark from the clutches of the slave-catchers.

Married in Willoughby, Ohio, April 7th, at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Storm, Mr. Charles A. Stough, of Eau Clair, Wisconsin, and Miss Elizabeth Gertrude Storm. The bride wore an elegant robe en train of silk and brocaded velvet of the same shade, mixed with gold, artistically combined natural flowers and lace for coiffure and corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Stough left on the 6 o'clock for Circleville to visit relatives of Mr. Stough, from thence to Kansas to visit his parents. Their future home will be in Eau Claire, Wis., where Mr. S. is connected with the bank of that city.

p. 1 Pioneer Sketches

Capt. Zenas Wilson was son of Abijah Wilson, and was born in Winsted, a parish of the town of Winchester, Litchfield Co. Conn., Aug. 11th, 1768. Mr. Wilson's early life, like others of his day, was one of hardship and toil and very little recreation. Education was limited and obtained in the common schools. On Jan. 19, 1797, he married Miss Polly Hudson. She was a native of Torrington, in the same county, and was born May 7th, 1770. Soon after marriage, they began keeping house in Winsted, where their three sons, Ansel, Orrin, and Orson were born. Here in Winsted, he obtained the title of Captain, which he carried to his grave. He was a farmer and successful. His eldest son Ansel, served an apprenticeship to the wool-carding and cloth dressing business, and carried on the business a short time in Winsted. Captain Wilson sold clocks in the Southern states, and disposing of property at good advantage, he assisted his sons to commence business. In 1821, he sold the property in Winsted, and they all moved to Fabius, Onondaga Co., N.Y. In 1823, he made a journey to Ohio, and as several of his acquaintances in Connecticut had settled in Concord, he made up his mind that he would make Concord his home. In 1824, he and his twin sons, Orrin and Orson, came and settled at what is now known as Wilson's Corners in Concord. He being in the vigor of idle life and with his energy and the aid of his two sons, who came to their majority that year, and the means of hired laborers, the wilderness soon became fruitful fields, and good frame building took the place of the log building of the pioneers. After being married almost 52 years, Mrs. Wilson died Dec. 3, 1843, age 73 years. Captain Wilson's second wife was Mrs. Eunice Maynard, of Hambden. She was an excellent woman and a native of Brookfield, Mass. Captain Wilson died Jan. 17, 1847, age 77 years. They had been only six months married at the time of his death. By C. C. Bronson

Ashtabula News

While Mr. Henry Apthorp, of this place, and his family were away from home, attending the funeral of his father, at Nottingham, last Friday afternoon, some persons broke into his house and stole a large revolver, two gold rings, about two dollars in silver coin, and some other trinkets.

p. 3 Dr. E. B. Root has received a letter from Hartford, announcing the death of Clarissa Root Bancroft, in that city on April 20, age about 92 years. She was a sister of James and the late Lyman Root, of this place.

We publish today a notice of the death of one of the old pioneers of this county, Mr. Jonathan Whipple, who settled in LeRoy in 1817.

Apr. 29, 1880

Mr. Julian C. Huntington, an old resident of Painesville, and one of the early pioneers of this county, but who for several years has made his home with his daughter in Ashtabula, is spending a few days in town visiting his children and other relatives and old friends. He is 85 years old and still active, enjoying a good measure of health.

H. B. Wick, an aged and respected citizen of Youngstown, died on the 22nd. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon. The banks closed as a mark of respect to his memory. The Youngstown rolling mills ceased operations and an air of sadness pervaded the streets. His last resting place was Mahoning Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton, comparatively new citizens of Painesville, leave tomorrow on a journey to Arizona. Mr. Fenton, is interested in the rich silver mine of that territory, and is President of the Esperanza Mining and Milling Company.

Painful Accident

Stephen Gordon, age 16, son of L. E. Gordon, was at work in the Chair Factory of O. S. King, in Concord, last Friday running a machine of planing rockers, when his right hand was caught in the machine and so badly mangled that Dr. Garner found it necessary to amputate the first, second, and third fingers at the knuckle, joint, and the fourth finger just above the first joint.

Obituary

Died in Collinwood, April 15th, Jonathan Whipple, age 85 years. The deceased was born in Croydon, New Jersey. August 2, 1795, emigrated to Ohio in the spring of 1817, and settled in Leroy when it was a wilderness, Sept. 3, 1818 he was married to Betsey C. Huntoon. They lived in Leroy until 1857, when they moved to Mentor.

From the Appleton City, Mos. Courier, of the 22nd

Concord

Mrs. L. M. Manley and family were startled a few days since by the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Lucia Preston, of Fillmore, Andrew Co., Missouri, and daughter of Moses Kibby deceased. Lucia Kibby was born in Concord, Lake Co., Ohio, Oct. 14, 1822, at what has since been known as Log Tavern Corners. When sixteen years of age, she moved with her parents to Hardin Co., Ohio, and when about twenty-eight years old was married to George Preston. Three years later with her husband and family they settled in Iowa, where they remained for several years. Still hoping to do better they removed to Missouri, where they lived at the time of her death of pneumonia, April 14, 1880, age 57 years, 5 mos., and 24 days. She was the mother of six children, three sons and three daughters, five of whom are still living, the oldest having died three years ago April 30th. She leaves a sister and brother, Mrs. L. M. Manley, of Concord, and Mr. H. Kibby, of Lima, Ohio, and one sister younger, Mrs. Lucretia Jackson, of Hardin Co., Ohio. Little more than a year ago, Mrs. Janett Gould, of Toledo, Ohio, sister of Mrs. Preston, was called to a home above. She was the youngest daughter of Moses Kibby, who died less than a year before. And now for the third time in a little more than two years have the remaining ones been called to mourn for a loved one. Concord, April 26

P. 1 Pioneer Sketches

For the want of room in my last paper, two items respecting Captain Wilson were not given. He held the office of Justice of the Peace for several terms and was postmaster for a long time when the mail was carried on horseback, and afterwards in the stage coach.

Ansel Wilson, as was previously mentioned was Captain Wilson's eldest child, born in Winsted Jan. 23rd, 1794. After he moved to New York state, he married Miss Roxy Benedict. He had been a clock peddler, and by his energy and business habits had accumulated considerable property. About 1826, he moved his family from New York to Concord; here was an opening for wool carding and cloth dressing. The Wilson family erected a building for the purpose on the creek near the present residence of Orrin Wilson. In connection with the manufactory, he also carried on a farm. The father and three sons were all connected in business at one time, and owned considerable land which they amicably divided, and each had his home. Ansel owned the farm now occupied by John H. Murray, and the large house which is Mr. Murray's residence at this time was a hotel and was a profitable investment for several years, until railroads turned freight and passenger traffic into other channels. He was a successful businessman in whatever he embarked; he seemed to know when to buy and when to sell at best advantage. They were the parents of three sons. William, the youngest, died Jan. 22nd, 1852, age 27 years. Mrs. Roxy Wilson died Dec. 30, 1863, age 70 years. All are buried at Wilson's Corner. The two sons, George and Hiram are successful business men in Illinois. The twin brothers Orrin and Orson were born Sept. 18, 1803, and have been successful business men in their day. They are both living, but the pioneer life shows upon them, for they feel the weight of 76 years. Mr. Orrin Wilson married Miss Harriet Winchell; they have two sons who are in good business. Mr. Orson Wilson married Miss Huldah H., daughter of Ashbel Munson, of Mentor. They had five children, three sons and two daughters. Three of their children died young. Captain Wilson lived to see ten grandchildren and but two granddaughters. By C. C. Bronson Tallmadge, April 16, 1880

Jefferson Gazette

George Sheldon reports a white, or partially white, robin as making its home in the vicinity of his house.

A pair of huge tusks of a mastodon were unearthed last week by men plowing in a marsh on the land of a man named Palmer, in Girard, Trumbull Co. The tusks being near together leads to the belief that the entire skeleton is buried there, also.

p. 3 Mr. S. L. Titus has moved from town to the ridge, two and a half miles from the Mountain.

The mother of President Hinsdale, of Hiram College, died a few days ago at her home in Wadsworth, Medina Co., age 65 years.

Mr. Geo H. Kidney has gone to spend the summer at his pine lands in Allegan Co., Michigan, where he will superintend the business of cutting and converting these trees in to various kinds of timber.

The Ashtabula Sentinel says the dwelling house of Hiram Woodworth, in the east part of Denmark, was burned at 4 o'clock a.m. on May 10th, with the entire contents.

May 13, 1880

Charles L. Freeman, son of Wm. Freeman, barber, returned home from the West this morning, after an absence of two years in Omaha, where he has held the position of head waiter of the principal hotel of that city. He was induced to give up his position to go with a party to Europe, which he is to meet in New York next Friday.

Cal. Hoffman was arrested last week on charge of an attempted outrage upon the wife of Mr. Martin Boerner, who resides on the farm of Mr. H. Woolworth. He was committed to jail to await trial at the next term of Common Pleas Court.

A change in the proprietorship of the Cleveland Herald took place last week. Colonel Parson disposing of his interest to M. A. Hann and Associates. Mr. J. C. Keffer, late associate editor of the Leader, having resigned his position, is to be editorial and business manager. Mr. Parsons retires on considerations of health. He was editor of the Herald for two and a half years.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Sturgess have returned from Mansfield to make their home in Painesville. Mr. Sturgess has purchased the pleasant residence of Mr. E. E. Johnson, one of the most desirable locations on Mentor Ave., the ground containing eight acres, adjoining those of Mr. Bateham. Mr. Sturgess presented his wife with a deed of the property as a wedding gift.

Monday's Storm

We had a rain and wind storm which changed to hail with increased wind, and the heaviest hail storm ever experienced here passed over a narrow belt. The hail stones were immense varying in size from lead bullets to large hickory nuts. The oldest inhabitant pronounces them the largest ever known to fall in this section. Messrs. Storrs, Harrison & Co. Nurseries about two miles east of town, lost about 4,000 panes of glass on their green house.

In town, a large part of the glass in the conservatory of Mr. S. M. Whitmore, corner of Wood and High Streets, was broken out, and several private conservatories also suffered in the loss of glass.

From the South Bend Daily Tribune, Saturday, May 8th 1880, regarding the death of Mrs. Wyman, wife of Mr. George Wyman, formerly of Painesville.

The many friends of Mrs. George Wyman, wife of the senior member of the firm of Wyman & Co., and daughter of the late Elmer Rose and Mrs. Sarah F. Rose, will regret to hear of her death this morning after years of intense suffering.

Thomas F. Croft, many years ago a resident of Painesville, now lives in Pasadena, California.

Dr. M. H. Burchard, of Panama, many years ago a resident of Painesville, and who has spent several of the past seasons here, arrived a couple of weeks ago. He is so much of an invalid as to be entirely confined to his room.

Mr. J. S. Bartholomew who left Painesville for the West a few weeks ago, has located at Grand Forks, Dakota, where he will manufacture brick in connection with erecting brick buildings.

Dr. George Collister, son of Mr. T. Collister, of Willoughby, has recently located at Madison for practice. He is well read, has experience both in city and country, and has a thorough medical education.

Mr. T. S. Baldwin has recently received a letter from L. L. Rice whom the old readers of the Telegraph will remember as a former editor, dated Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, April 26h, where he has gone to reside with his daughter. He writes of interesting times, the climate is delicious the thermometer ranging from 58 to 78; while the beauty of the tropical foliage and grandeur of the mountain scenery is beyond description.

Hector Sears died at his residence in Brooklyn, N.Y., on May 9th. He was a son-in-law of Dr. L. C. Brown, of this place, and had many personal friends in Painesville.

Emma Frances, only daughter of Dr. Levi S. and E. F. Burridge, died in New York at the residence of her parents, 318 Madison Ave., May 14th, age 24 years. Dr. Burridge is in Europe. She died of consumption.

Mr. W. S. Stage, formerly of this place, and brother of S. K. Stage, died at his home in Ferriss, Montcalm Co., Mich., Sunday, May 9th, age 52 years. The deceased left here about two years ago and located at the above place. He died suddenly of a hemorrhage of the lungs.

Death of Mrs. Crocker

Mrs. Perlina Barnes Crocker, relict of Roswell Crocker, died in North Madison, May 5th, at the residence of her son, John W. Crocker, age 84 years. She was born in Becket, Mass., Sept. 5, 1796. In 1815, her parents moved to Huntington Co., New York. She was married Jan. 22, 1817. During this year, she and her husband settled in Amherst, Lorain Co., Ohio, where they remained until 1835, when they removed to Madison and settled upon the farm where she died. She passed many nights alone in her log cabin with her children, her husband being at work, with only a blanket for a door and the wolves howling outside. Mr. Crocker died in 1867, since which time she has resided with her son on the old homestead.

Ninety-Seven Years

Mr. H. S. Cole was 97 years old on May 14th, 1880. Ten years ago, his son Mr. H. Cole made a birthday party for his father, inviting old friends and neighbors to join him. This visit of the old folks has since been repeated annually. Of the 22 or 23 old settlers who were present ten years ago, all have died but two, who were present Friday. Mr. Cole came to Painesville in 1823.

South Madison

Mr. Lyman Wheeler, an old resident is very sick and is not expected to get well. He is about 84 years old.

Geauga County, Chardon

John Murray, well known in this section, died on Saturday, age 63 years.

May 20, 1880

Our village was thrown into a good deal of excitement last week on learning that Lawrence S. Faulk was guilty of incest with his three daughters. He is still at large, but a reward is offered for his arrest. The oldest of his victims, is now 18 or 19 years old. When at the tender age of 10 years she was seduced by her father and has ever since been subject to his unnatural passions. The second daughter, two or three years younger, was ruined at about the same age, and has been treated in the same inhuman manner by her father. The third daughter, now between 10 and 11, has been his victim for more than a year. About two years ago, the eldest made an attempt at suicide by cutting her throat and told the story about her father, but it was not relied upon, and she was considered partially insane. She attempted suicide again last Wednesday and repeated the charges against her father; further inquiry brought to light the whole horrible facts. The father by threats of violence so well kept his secret that neither of the daughters knew of the other's wrong.

Mentor

We were all called to mourn the death of Mrs. George Viall last week. She had been a sufferer for many years.

Willoughby Plains

Miss Alma Brown and Mr. Lewis Kelley were married Wednesday evening at her grandmother's house, where she has lived for many years.

Mr. J. Campbell died Sunday morning. He was one of the oldest citizens of the town, having come to Willoughby when a boy. He married and settled on the Plains. His wife died and left him with ten children. He afterwards remarried, and his wife with seven of the children survive him. Two of his children are in Texas, one is in Missouri, one in Michigan, and one in Nebraska; the others are on the Plains.

R. G. Hard, adm. of Henry Riker, deceased vs.
Joseph H. Riker et al. Land in Painesville will be sold.

May 27, 1880      Thursday

p. 1 Samuel Jones Sr. died a few days since at his residence in Wayne Township, Ashtabula Co.; he was 98 years old. He was one of the old pioneers, having moved from Connecticut and settling in Wayne Township in 1811.

Jefferson Gazette

John Hardy, of Kelloggsville, age 81 years, has been suffering for a year or more, with gangrene of the foot and leg, and his life was despaired of, till last Wed. night when, strange to say, the deceased portion literally dropped off. The stump that was left is healing nicely.

p. 2 Grand Army of the Republic (G.A.R.)

Its Objects and principles

This organization was instituted in the city of Indianapolis, Indiana, Nov. 20, 1866 to supplement, solidify, and perpetuate the results of the Great War of the Rebellion.

The objects to be accomplished by this organization are as follows:

1. To preserve and strengthen those kind and fraternal feelings which bind together the soldiers, sailors, and marines who united to

May 27, 1880

suppress the late rebellion, and to perpetuate the memory and history of the dead.

2. To assist, such former comrades in arms as need help and protection; and to extend needful aid to the widows and orphans of those who have fallen.

3. To maintain true allegiance to the United States of American...to encourage the spread of universal liberty, equal rights and justice to all men.

Membership: Soldiers and sailors of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, who served during the late rebellion and those honorably discharged after such service. No person shall be eligible to membership who has at any time born arms against the United States.

p. 3 Mr. A. J. Cook received a letter from his son Thomas E., who resides at the sandwich Islands. He has been sick some time, and is now so low that the announcement of his death is expected daily.

Mr. O. S. Crowl, of Mentor, is the inventor and manufacturer of a new strawberry crate with boxes, which is endorsed by dealers as the best thing of the kind in the market, as well as the cheapest. The crates are iron bound and hold thirty-two quart boxes.

Mr. Henry E. Moseley, an old resident of Thompson and for several years later of Painesville, but more recently living at Grand Rapids, Michigan, died suddenly in that city Tuesday morning. The remains will be brought to Painesville for interment.

James Caldwell died at the residence of widow Corlett, in Concord, last Friday and was buried by the township Saturday night.

Mr. O. S. Hodges residing on Eire St. met with something of an accident last Thursday by the running away of his horse. He escaped without serious injury.

Mr. Alfred Parks, Kirtland, age 53 years, committed suicide by taking Paris Green last Friday. It is now understood that his mind was greatly depressed and partially deranged. He was an old and highly esteemed resident. He leaves a wife and one married daughter.

Another Old Resident Gone – In Memoriam

Mrs. Polly Benjamin died at her residence in Madison on April 14, 1880, age 90 years. She was one of the oldest and most esteemed pioneer residents of that township. She was born in Wendell, Mass., Dec. 1, 1791 and in the year 1836 moved with her husband and eight children to Madison where she continued to reside until the time of her death. She leaves seven children, twelve grandchildren, six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Lyman Beach, of this township, died last Saturday, age 62 years. He was a son-in-law of Mr. Harvey Woodworth, of your city. His remains were taken to Mercer, Pa., his former home, for interment.

Geneva, May 24, 1880

Henry Means, lawyer, was out of town a few days last week to attend the wedding of his sister at Rock Creek.

M. B. Hubbard, of Madison, died Saturday morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. Wilcox. Mr. Hubbard moved from Cazenovia, N.Y., many years ago, purchasing a pleasant home near the village of Madison where he resided until the infirmities of old age led him to sell his property. He has since resided in the home of his son-in-law, J. S. Wilcox. He was 87 years old and leaves a wife and three married daughters.

p. 2 Tom Taylor, a drayman, fell dead in the street at Warren one day recently, while carrying a heavy sack of burden on his back.

p. 3 Judge and Mrs. Hitchcock leave for Saginaw today, to visit their children Mr. and Mrs. George H. Morley.

An old gentleman, Mr. J. Holeman, of Greene, Trumbull Co, being insane, cut his throat with a razor last Friday.

Last Friday, Drs. H. C. Beardsley and C. M. Hawley, made a post mortem examination of the body of the late Wm. Durand, and ascertained that his disease was cancer of the liver.

Last Friday, Mr. R. A. Moodey started for the Moodey stock or ranch farm in Colorado, taking with him eleven head of choice blooded stock. He will remain at the ranch some four months.

Completion of the Monument

At precisely eleven o'clock of Saturday forenoon the colossal statue of the soldier was placed in position as the crowning piece of the Lake Co.

June 3, 1880

Soldiers' Monument. It is far superior in every respect to what was anticipated.

Death of a Former Resident

We briefly announced last week the sudden death of Henry F. Moseley, a former citizen of this place, which occurred at Grand Rapids, Mich. The remains arrived in Painesville Thursday morning and were taken directly to Evergreen Cemetery for services. He was for many years a resident of Thompson. He died of neuralgia of the heart, age 63 yrs., 10 mos., 8 days. Mr. Moseley was born in Westfield, Mass., but from seven years of age spent his life at or near Painesville, Ohio. He moved to Grand Rapids four years ago. He leaves one daughter and four sons, two of whom compose the well-known firm of T. F. Moseley and Co., of Grand Rapids.

Mentor

Will Kerr and Will Sawyer left for Colorado last week and Mrs. J. W. Hayward formerly Miss Helen Loomis, leaves for St. Paul sometime this week to join her husband who has accepted a position in the First National Bank there.

Johnnycake ridge

George Clark boasts a new baby girl at his house.

Middle Ridge

Mr. Marshall Palmer, of Seward Co., Neb., is in town visiting his old home.

Mrs. Ogden Brainard has twin sons who put in an appearance last Monday morning.

Mrs. Sophia Charter left for St. James, Mo., last Tuesday, where she has a daughter with whom she will remain for a time.

William M. Beeman, of Geneva, and Miss Hattie C. Bartholomew, of Harpersfield, were married at Jefferson, May 27th.

Died

In Painesville, on May 22nd, after a long sickness Ella L., the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Bostwick, age 28 years.

Obituary

It becomes our duty to record the death of our esteemed townsman, Mr. Wm. Durand, who departed this life on May 27th. His disease was cancer of the liver, from which he suffered for a long time. The subject of this notice was born in Cheshire, Conn., on Aug. 17th, 1802. He came with his parents to Burton, Ohio, in 1806, was one of a family of six children, four boys and two girls, all of whom, save one sister, have now passed to "the other side." The family remained in Burton but a short time, after which they moved to Painesville. Wm. Durand was married to Miss Lucinda Lyman on March 19th, 1828, and the day following the hopeful couple moved on to the farm in Mentor Township where they have since lived. Mr. Durand was the father of four children, one son and three daughters. One of the daughters died at the age of twelve.

Obituary

Luman Wheeler, one of the early settlers of Madison, was the son of Asa Wheeler of Marlborough, Mass., and was born May 19, 1796. Mr. Wheeler moved to Winchester, N.H. and after six or eight years went to Swanzee, where Luman was bound an apprentice to a blacksmith by the name of Seaver, for four years, with the privilege of one month's schooling each year. After serving some time at his apprenticeship the war broke out with England, and Swanzee had to furnish eight men for the army. The militia were mustered and volunteers called for. Three men enlisted: Long, Mathews, and Wheeler—the rest of the eight were drafted. The men were sent to guard Portsmouth, then the capital of New Hampshire. They were discharged the end of November without pay and started for home. He started for Ohio Feb. 1, 1817, with Wm. Long and arrived in Madison, March 1st. They rode on the ice from Buffalo to Erie, a distance of 90 miles; the rest of the way they came on foot. He built a shop in the upper hollow, at the place formerly known as Emerson's mills, and stayed about two and one half years, then went back to Swanzee and married his master's daughter, Miss Sarah Seaver, Sept. 1, 1819. Mr. Wheeler and a man years; age 58 years. The deceased was born in Alexandria, N.H. in 1822 and came to Ohio in 1843. He married Eunice Parker in 1847. He was a mason by trade and his work now stands as a monument to his memory. He leaves a wife and four children. His funeral was held at his late residence on State St.

In McMinnville, Tenn., on July 1, after a long and painful illness of acute rheumatism, Mrs. Betsey Ann Carter, wife of Miles W. Carter, age 58 years. She was born in Berkshire Co., Mass., and moved with her parents, the late Jonathan Weed and wife, to Ohio in 1829, settled in Leroy, Lake Co., on the farm now owned and occupied by D. D. Weed. She was the mother of two sons, the eldest died when quite young; the younger, Melville J., has grown to manhood, and is attending his father who is very ill. Mrs. Carter was an only daughter, she leaves two brothers to mourn her loss, C. S. and D. D. Weed, who are citizens of LeRoy. A part of the married life of Mrs. Carter was spent in LeRoy; eleven years ago they moved to McMinnville, Tenn. which has been their home ever since. The remains were brought back to LeRoy.

July 8, 1880

Since General Garfield's return to his home in Mentor, besides receiving from one to two hundred letters daily, he has been favored with so large a number of telegrams that the Western Union Company have felt constrained to ask the privilege of running a wire from the Lake Shore to his office and keeping an operator there constantly.

The Fourth in Painesville – Dedication of the Soldiers Monument

It was expected that the exercise would call out a liberal outpouring of the people which Painesville was prepared for; but she had not looked for the great tidal wave of humanity that flooded her streets on Saturday. The city was in holiday attire with flags and bunting displayed from business blocks, private residences, hotels and public buildings. At the intersection of St. Clair and Main Streets was erected a magnificent double arch covered with evergreens and flags. The monument was built by R. F. Carter, of South Ryegate, Vt., from the best Vermont granite and cost about $4,200. Gen. J. S. Casement was Marshal of the Day; J. B. Kilbourne, Chief of Staff. At the Parmly House on State St. the large Hall and the room below were filled with long tables and ample accommodations were provided for feeding fully 500 at a time. Across the upper end of the hall ran a table, handsomely laid and decorated with flowers, at which were seated General Garfield and General Cox; ex Lieut. Gov. Fitch, Mayor Herrick, Capt. C. E. Henry, H. C. Blossom and A. J. Williams, of Cleveland; E. V. Smalley, of the New York Tribune; Major Bundy, of the New York Mail; W. C. Ford, of Burton: Gen. J. A. Potter, U.S.A.; Gen J. S. Casement, Rev. A. Phelps; Judge Aaron Wilcox and J. F. Scofield, of the Reception Committee and perhaps others whose names we did not get. After dinner, the audience began moving toward the Park for the ceremony at 2 p.m. Captain Burrows spoke first calling attention to the object and purpose of the gathering. Mr. E. V. Smalley, of the New York Tribune, intimately connected with the primitive military organizations in the county, was introduced and spoke next. He told about the organization of the first volunteer company formed in this county for the war, of which he had been a member. The 350 school children sang; and the Report of the Trustees of the Monument Association was given by Mr. E. P. Branch. Then Prof. Harvey made a speech thanking the committee for the monument on behalf of the people of Lake County. Mr. Woodworth being in too feeble voice to be heard handed his brief address to Geo. E. Paine to read for him. He said that the people were fully satisfied with the monument and that is it all that was promised. The school children sang again, "America" this time. Gen. Cox, our ex-Governor then spoke. He had commanded more Ohio companies than any other commander from the State. The Painesville Cornet Band played and General Garfield was introduced. He was greeted with round after round of applause. He spoke about "What does the monument mean?" and "What does the monument teach?" In this monument is all the bloodshed, lives lost, and grief felt crystalized into granite and rendered immortal. It teaches the lesson of endurance for what we believe in, sacrifice for what we think, and heroism for what we mean to sustain.

Died – At his residence in this city, on the morning of July 6th, after a lingering illness, E. H. Wilcox, age 70 yrs., 3 days. He was born in Killingworth, Conn. His father, Hon. Moses Wilcox, a direct descendant of the Puritan, was a man of large wealth and for many years a member of the legislature of his State. In 1826, in company with his twin brother, he emigrated to Ohio where they located and organized a town which they gave the name Twinsburgh. Here the deceased was reared and at the age of 22 entered Oberlin College where he pursued a seven years' course in which was included theology and the classics, graduating in the first class there. He soon became principal of the seminary in Coldwater, Wis.; afterwards he entered the mercantile business at Appleton in the same State in company with Benjamin Proctor, whose daughter Belle he married Aug. 6th, 1856. Soon after they moved to Cedar Falls, in this State where he remained in trade until 1864, when he came to this city. He leaves a wife and children.

Death of General Abel Kimball

The following brief sketch of Gen. Abel Kimball was read at his funeral service in Madison, Lake Co., O., July 26. Abel Kimball was born Jan. 18, 1801, in Rindge, Cheshire Co., New Hampshire, his ancestors being among the early colonists of Massachusetts Bay. In 1812, with his father's family he moved from the place of his nativity to this township which then contained but seventeen families. Here he has lived for a period of 68 years. Sept. 26, 1830, he married Philena Hastings, of Greenfield, Mass., with whom he had, therefore, at his death, lived but a few weeks less than a half century. When a young man, he organized and commanded a militia company. By regular promotion he reached the rank of Brigadier-General. He was Sheriff for two terms of Geauga Co., and represented Lake Co. three terms in the Ohio Legislature. He served the township as township trustee, real estate appraiser, and justice of the peace. About twenty-five years ago, he developed a spinal difficulty and began to lose

July 29, 1880

the use of his limbs. The last 17 years, he has been confined to his chair.

Mr. Kimball leaves as survivors of his father's family one brother, Mr. Addison Kimball, of Madison, and two sisters: Mrs. Judge Paige and Mrs. Dr. Rosa, both of Painesville.

The Soldiers and Sailors Monument in Geneva was unveiled and dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. General Garfield spoke. It was a Red Letter day for Geneva. The residences along the line of march were profusely decorated; over the principal street corners were erected beautiful arches bedecked with festoons and flags. On wires stretching in every direction from the center arch at the intersection of Main and Broadway, were hung neat banners bearing the names and places of the great battles. Dinner was served in the Town Hall by the Bowers Post of Geneva, assisted by the generous ladies of that place. The tables on the upper floor could accommodate 400 at a time, while 125 more could be provided below. After dinner, all began to cluster around the speakers' stand. Hon. Stephen A. Northway, of Jefferson, was Orator of the Day. Then Gen. Garfield spoke. He said that some people think that soldiers are chiefly renowned for courage. That is one of the cheapest and commonest qualities. We share it with the brutes. The difference between them and us is this: Tigers never hold reunions. Wild beasts never build monuments over their slain comrades. Why? Because there are no ideas behind their warfares. Our race has ideas, and because ideas are immortal, if they be true, we build monuments to them. We hold reunions not for the dead, for there is no one thing on all the earth that you and I can do for the dead. They are past our help and past our praise. They do not need us, but forever more we need them. The glory that trails in the clouds behind them after their sun has set, falls with its benediction upon us who are left, and it is to commemorate the immortality of the ideas for which they fought that you assemble today and dedicate your monument.

Aug. 5, 1880

General Garfield then introduced Gen. Ben. Harrison, of Indiana. Then Gen. Straight was introduced. General Garfield and party were obliged to leave just as Gen. Straight began, so that the exercises were brought to a sudden close. Generals Garfield, Harrison, Straight and Congressmen McKinley, Orth and Conger left by special car for the east about 4:30 p.m.

Perry

The notice of the death of Marcus Holcomb of this township was in last week's Telegraph. As there are so few of the old pioneers left, it would seem fitting to give a lengthier notice of his life. He was born in Granby, Hartford Co., Conn., in 1802. After a brief time in Connecticut and Massachusetts, his father moved to Marcellus, Onondiagua Co., N.Y., where they resided until 1820. In that year, in company with his brother-in-law, Elisha Patch, they came to this county and settled in Leroy. All the worldly goods they possessed were placed upon Mr. Patch's wagon, besides a small yoke of steers, which were put to the team ahead and helped to haul the load. Upon arriving here, he selected a heavily timbered piece of land and began to make a home. Few of us can realize the great labor and privation incident to such a situation. Not a stick cut, no money, no team, save the small yoke of steers, no roads, no house, no stock of provisions. Nothing to help him accomplish the object, save his own determination and great physical strength and endurance. After three or four years, money for the payment of his land being so difficult to obtain here, he concluded to go back to Connecticut and work for a season. He started on foot on the long journey. He had closely calculated the time and cost, and his money lasted until the last night out, when he was compelled to ask for food and a night's lodging which were cheerfully given him. He never forgot it, and probably during his long life never refused shelter and food to anyone asking it. There is but one of his father's family now living, Mrs. Fanny, wife of James Wright, of Leroy, who is now past her 82nd birthday. She has been a wife nearly 59 years. On Feb. 17, 1833, Mr. Holcomb was married to Louisa, daughter of the late David Brooks, of Madison. She and three children survive him. (A Neighbor.)

The Late M. B. Bateham

Prof. Penfield, of Berlin, a brother of Mrs. Bateham, contributes to the columns of the Leader some historical facts concerning the life of Mr. Bateham which we copy:

Mr. Bateham was born in Kent Co., England, Sept. 13, 1813, and came to this country in 1825, shortly afterward going to Rochester, N.Y., where he resided for 20 years. The balance of his life was spent in Ohio, at Columbus and Painesville where he has resided for the last 16 years. He was one of the organizers and the first Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, and one of the organizers of the Ohio Pomological (now Horticultural) Society. His last public work was in the founding of the Tile Makers and Tile Drainers Association. Mr. Bateham leaves a wife and six children.

Mysterious Disappearance

Miss Ida A. Eddy, daughter of Mrs. O. J. Line, residing at 221 State St. left her home about 2 o'clock last Saturday and her whereabouts to this date have not been learned. She had prepared dinner, done up the work and dressed herself for the purpose of making a visit to her grandmother's on Mentor Ave.; her aunt having promised to call for her and her mother about 4 o'clock. She told her mother she was going out into the yard. There being a sick child at a neighbor's house, her mother concluded she was there, but at 5 o'clock instituted a search among the neighbors to find that none of them had seen her during the afternoon. Miss Eddy bears an unblemished reputation and the only reason given for her strange disappearance is that she must have become suddenly deranged. She was very much worried about a law suit to which she feared being subpoenaed, and an account for rent which she supposed settled and paid, had been sent to her mother, which troubled her. Her father had died insane and maybe she inherited his temperament. Later—the body of Miss Eddy has just been found in a cistern on the premises where she resided. She was 28 years old.

Aug. 12, 1880

The deceased was brought to Painesville and taken to her former home, the residence of her son-in-law, Hon. Geo. W. Steele. The remains were buried in Evergreen Cemetery. Mr. A. M. Thomson, of the Chicago Tribune, with his wife, a sister of the late Mrs. Dr. Palmer, came on from Milwaukee with the remains. Mr. Thomson is a brother of Mr. J. J. Thomson, of Perry.

Mentor, Nov. 3, 1880

Some 75 Republican gentlemen were in attendance upon Gen. Garfield last evening after the election, remaining with him in his office till past midnight awaiting election results. The returns came and were read by the operators, but as the result became quite certain, Gen.

Nov. 11, 1880

Garfield quietly left the library and went to his family.

Some were just a little dazed yesterday by the appearance on our street of the Garfield carriage drawn by his span of blacks and under escort of some 32 cavalymen, of which 26 were drawn up four deep riding in front and two on the side with four behind. The carriage contained six of our oldest men; Gen. D. Northrop, David Gray, Samuel Bandle, Thomas Morley, Brown and Sprague, all over 80 years of age. They were taken to and from the polls, where they each cast a vote for James A. Garfield.

Geneva, Nov. 8, 1880

J. E. Holt, age 16, brother of C. C. Holt, died Wednesday night of typhoid fever. He came here last fall from Cory, Pa., for the purpose of attending school. The young man had only been sick about a week and was not thought seriously sick until the last. He was taken with a hemorrhage of the bowels and died an hour later.

Mentor, Nov. 9, 1880

Mr. A. Bull will leave this week the bustle and hum about the Mentor Station, for the fertile grain country of Dakota.

On the evening of the 6th, President Hayes, Mrs. Hayes and Web Hayes arrived at Mentor Depot in a special car from Cleveland. General Garfield's carriage was waiting, and the parties were taken through soaking rain, direct to Lawnfield.

A large delegation of Oberlin people paid an unexpected visit to General Garfield the day following the election. There were 379 ladies and gentlemen embracing among their number, ministers, teachers, professors, philosophers, and pupils, together with many of the citizens of Oberlin who boarded a train en route for Lawnfield. At 3:50 p.m. they took their line of march over the pleasant ridge and on through the long lane which leads around the yard of General Garfield, whose gates have in no instance been closed to the many thousands who have visited him this past summer. The General greeted them from the porch across the front of his house; he came looking peaceful, smiling and happy. There was hand shaking, speech making, and singing.

p. 3 M. J. Carter, writing us from McMinnville, Tennessee, Dec. 13th, says the weather is delightful but pretty cold for that climate.

Dec. 16, 1880

Mr. Eli Young, of Kansas City, has shipped to our city a half barrel of choice California grapes. They were a gift to the ladies who are conducting the Christmas festival and will be sold by them tonight.

Charles W. Durban, son of Mr. S. C. Durban, who has been in Butte Co., California nearly three years returned home Saturday. En route over the plains the train was snow bound in the mountain sheds for nine or ten hours.

Mrs. Norris P. Stockwell, London, England, sent us city papers. Mrs. Stockwell's friends and relatives here, look forward to the time when she and her family will again cross the Atlantic for their annual visit "Home."

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. K. Reynolds have moved from the Stockwell House to the "House on the Hill," so that they may be with Mr. Mathews, Mrs. Reynolds' father. Mr. and Mrs. Cook Mathews are also most kind and attentive to the sufferer. Mrs. H. K. Reynolds, of N.J., and Mrs. Ogborn, of Cincinnati, both arrived this week, and are in attendance on their father.

Rev. C. C. Burrows, has been in town for a day or two visiting the family of his brother, Mayor Burrows. He leaves soon to spend the winter in Florida where he expects to buy an orange grove.

Death of Mrs. Trumbull

Mrs. Julia A. Trumbull, wife of A. Trumbull, was born in Ashfield, Mass., Sept. 13, 1812, and moved to this county in an early day, was for 50 years a resident of South Madison, but for the past eight years has, with her husband and sister, been living in Earlville, Ill. She had an attack of paralysis in church which made her helpless and unable to speak. She was taken home and gradually sank away expiring Dec. 6, 1880. She was the youngest of ten children all but two living to be over sixty years of age, and all growing to manhood. The oldest, Mrs. Sarah Fowler, still residing in Madison, will be 91 in April and is hale and hearty. Although all lived to a good age, they had never been together as a family and only came together on the last day. She was married 44 years, and had two sons and two daughters. Only the father and the sons are still living.

Dec. 23, 1880

Death of Dr. S. W. Parmly

We announced the sudden death of Dr. Parmly in our last issue. He was stricken down with heart disease. Dr. Parmly was born in Braintree, Orange Co., Vt., on Sept. 5, 1807, and moved with his parents to Perry, in this county, when about 8 yrs. old. He remained on the farm in Perry till he was 20 years of age, when he went to New York and studied dentistry with his brother, the late Dr. Eleazer Parmly. He had been a resident of New York for 53 years but would spend summers in Perry and Painesville for a number of years. He was the author of several very popular articles, among them one entitled "Eternal Punishment," and one titled "The life of St. Paul." He leaves a number of relatives and friends in Lake Co., among them a sister, Mrs. Hannah Burrige, of Painesville.

Dec. 30, 1880

Obituary

We again are called to chronicle the death of an old pioneer. Rufus Howe died Dec. 15, 1880. He was born Feb. 15, 1796, in Marlborough, Windham Co., Vermont. His father died when he was nine years old and he was bound during his minority to Uriah Sawyer, an uncle living in Jefferies, N. H., with whom he lived till he was twenty years old, at which time, Mr. Sawyer gave him for choice his liberty to leave then, or remain one year and receive one hundred dollars. He left, and near Boston spent nine months for which he received one hundred dollars. He then made his elder brother a visit at Berlin, Worcester Co., Mass. which resulted in the two brothers packing their few possessions and setting out on foot for the west, arriving at Thompson, Geauga Co., Ohio in the winter of 1817. They took up 300 acres of land in lot 21. Subsequently, Rufus went back, and again returned on foot; making three times he traveled the whole distance. After three years, the brothers divided the land, Rufus keeping 100 acres which he owned at the time of his death. He learned the trade of cooper from his brother, Otis, which enabled him to do better financially. He married in 1819, Sylvia Barnes, a daughter of Mark Barnes, who had previously settled here, with whom he lived only two years, and in 1822, married Maria a sister of the first wife, who survives him. He died on her 74th birthday. They were married for 58 years. The first wife gave birth to a daughter, that lived eight years. The second wife had several children but only one lived to much age. Mrs. S. N. Barnes, now cares for her mother. Mr. Howe is buried next to his brother, Otis, on Otis' farm. Thompson. Dec. 17, 1880.
