JUNIOR CLASS

MANFORD EUGENE JONES

Military Company 1917-18.
Literary Society 1917-18.
Debating Representative 1917-18.
Basketball 1918-19.

Editor-in-Chief Students' Voice 1918-19

Manford is one of the most exemplary students that has ever crossed our threshold. He is a hard thinker and during his two years with us, has made many friends.

ROBERT DUPREE PETERSON

Yell Leader 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.
Sophomore Editor Students' Voice 1916-17.
Assistant Editor-in-Chief 1917-18.
Business Manager Students' Voice 1918-19.
Sergeant Military Company 1917-18.
President Junior Class 1917-18.

"Bob" is one of the best all-round members of our class. His pep as yell leader, has contributed much to the enthusiasm of M. H. S. He has made an excellent record in his studies, too, and we wish his success in the future.

WILSON ALONZO DURHAM

Military Company 1917-18.
Basketball 1917-18, '18-19.
Track 1919.

Senior Editor Students' Voice 1918-19.

"Jack" has every quality which should belong to a real man. Our only regret is that he has not been with the whole four years, but in the brief time he has been here, we have all become his friends.

HAZEL EVELYN KLING

Booster Club 1918-19.

Hazel says little, but she thinks much. Without a doubt she is one of the best students that has ever attended Marlin High School. She is a fine girl and everyone in the class wishes her success.

SALLIE BURNS

Booster Club 1918-19.

Hiking Club 1918-19.

"Sunshine" breezed in on us from Kosse to be with us in the final year. In her stay with us, she has made many friends, for to know her is to love her. We regret that she has not been with us the whole four years.

SUSIE EDDINS

Freshman Editor Students' Voice 1915-16.

Senior Class Poet 1918-19.

Like most old people, Susie wears her "specs," but we all love her and admire the way she "goes after" her studies. Her ambition is to become a Latin teacher. We hope she finds her future agreeable, and we know it will be successful.

OPLÉ MARIE CRISWELL

Glee Club 1918-19.

Booster Club 1918-19.

"Ree" is a jolly sort of a girl. She takes everything as it comes, good or bad. She is a bright student and will, no doubt, make good at whatever vocation she may take up.

MYRTLE VIOLA CRISWELL

Booster Club 1918-19.

Myrtle is of the most calm and quiet disposition. She is studious, charitable and companionable to all of us. Surely no one can surpass these three characteristics. As she leaves us, we wish everything worth while in life.

CLARA RUTH MCKINLEY

Glee Club 1918-19.

Clara is not much of a talker, but under her dignity (?) there lies a large amount of optimism, good cheer, and a big heart. So here's hoping she will have a bright and glorious future.

CLARA LOUISE PRESNALL

Booster Club 1917-18, '18-19.

Hiking Club 1918-19.

Clara has a most charming personality and a sunny disposition. She has won a large host of friends who will never forget the radiance and sunshine she p'anted in their lives.

ANNIE LOU FORREST

Glee Club 1917-18, '18-19.

Booster Club 1918-19.

Annie Lou is a wonderfud girl; she puts lots of life into anything she takes part in. She is small but covers a wide territory. Her cheerfulness and light heartedness make her liked by all with whom she is associated. Her motto is, "It's the smile that wins."

ALLENE ETNA WALKER

Booster Club 1915-16, '16-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

Glee Club 1918-19.

"Al" is a girl who can translate Spanish, scan poetry, cut out a frock, play society, make divinity, and analyze problems of love to perfection. Her school work is of high quality, and we expect to hear great things from her.

VIOLA LEE MOORE

Booster Club 1917-18, '18-19.

Hiking Club 1918-19.

Literary Society 1917-18.

Viola is one of our most popular members. She is very studious, in fact she likes to study so well she came very near waiting another year to leave high school. We all like her and wish her the best of luck.

BESSIE EILEEN SNELL

Booster Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Glee Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

"Bonnie" is just like her name, only more so. Her other characteristic is uttering short, snappy remarks that hit the nail on the head every time. She means what she says, says what she means, and then sticks to it; and we like her.

VERNON WILLIS COLE

Band 1915-16, '16-17, '17-18.
Military Company 1917-18.
Literary Society 1917-18.
Debating Representative 1917-18.
Freshman Editor Students' Voice 1915-16.
Humorous Editor Students' Voice 1918-19.
Football 1918-19.
Basketball 1918-19.

"Fatty," our humorous editor, is the class clown, and his keen sense of humor has won for him a place in our heart.: Vernon is an excellent student, musician, and debater. Seniors of '19, keep your eye on him.

SANFORD STALLWORTH HANCOCK

Basketball 1917-18, '18-19.
Football 1918-19
Military Company 1917-18.
Track 1917-18, '18-19.
Literary Society 1917-18.

"San" is a great fellow (both in mind and stature). He has won fame as an athlete, chemist (?), and a minstrel man. "San" has a mischievous disposition, but we feel sure that this will be no drawback to him in the future.

W. G. TUBB

Military Company 1917-18.
Basketball 1917-18.

"Tubbs" does not talk much, but he has said enough to persuade the faculty to grant him credits enough to get a "sheepskin." "Tubbs" is an excellent jitney driver, and we feel sure he will make good in whatever vocation he chooses.

HENRY DAVID RUSH

Military Company 1917-18.

Tennis 1918-19.

Vice-President Sophomore Class 1916-17.

"Heine" is a solemn personage, but, if his thoughts were analyzed, you would probably see some surprising results. He is never in a hurry and takes all misfortunes with Stoic calmness. He is a willing worker, and here's hoping his future achievements will bring him fame.

WILFRED WRIGHT WOODLAND

Football 1917-18, '18-19.

Basketball 1918-19.

"Wrighty" is noted for his "stickability," and his sincerity and love-making qualities are widely known. He speaks what he thinks, and his record in school has been excellent.

HERBERT HERMAN MEIER

"Happy" is a jolly but hard working student. He never fails to respond when called on (especially in Latin and History), and, during his four years in high school, he has made an enviable record. "Hap" never permits the girls to interfere with his work.

JASPER CLUCK FOUNTAIN, JR.

Football 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Basketball 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Track 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Top Sergeant Military Company 1917-18.

"Ullie Mullie" is a great football player and a distinguished member of our class. His charming powers of speech and his courtesy have made him popular with the fair sex, but he doesn't like a girl unless she is a good cook.

THOMAS WALTER McKNIGHT

Track 1917-18, '18-19.

Football 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Sergeant Military Company 1917-18.

"Connie Mack" is a close associate of "Ullie Mullie" and he is famous for his good looks, his football, and his grin, and because of his desire to be with his many M. H. S. friends he has remained with us for his fifth year. But now he is leaving, we trust that he will have a successful future.

ALBERT LEE TOMLINSON

Basketball 1916-17, '17-18.

Military Company 1917-18.

Football 1918-19.

"Runt" has made himself famous in our circles by his inexhaustible supply of hot air. This and many other qualities have put him high with the students and some of the faculty. We may expect to hear from Albert as a farmer since he has determined to go to A. & M.

LOVICK McCORD GLASS

Football 1917-18, '1918-19.

Basketball 1917-18, '1819.

"Mike" is an unassuming kind of a fellow and he never talks except when he knows he's right. Lovick is a coming athlete having made an excellent record in both football and basketball and we know that he will make good in the future.

CYRUS HALE HAILEY

Military Company 1917-18.

Football 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Track 1918-19.

Literary Society 1917-18.

"Sugar" as you have probably guessed has a sweet disposition. His charming manners and his Chalmers car have quite won the charming ladies hearts. As a track man "Sugar" is a "dark horse" and his consistent training will, no doubt some day, make him an all-star man.

FRED WILLIAM PAULING

"Fritz" is a quiet sort of a fellow, but he is a good student and in spite of the ill health he has had during his high school career, he has made good.

PERLE BIRTIE PAUL

Glee Club 1915-16, '16-17, '17-18, '18-19.

President Glee Club 1918-19.

Secretary Glee Club 1917-18.

Booster Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

Society Editor Students' Voice 1918-19.

Perle is dignity personified, but that doesn't signify that her eyes are "just so" all the time. It is a pleasure to know her; no need to recount her virtues and faults. Just sum it up—she is an all-round girl.

ONIE ULVIA CONYERS

Glee Club 1915-16, '16-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Booster Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

Literary Society 1917-18.

Senior Editor Students' Voice 1918-19.

Onie is a brick, a good talker, and, above all, she has enough optimism in her make-up to supply a dozen men her size and keep them all happy. To her we bestow a bountiful amount of good will as she leaves Marlin High.

LINNIE ARLEIGH COLEMAN

President Senior Class 1918-19.

Secretary-Treasurer of Junior Class 1917-18.

Glee Club 1915-16, '16-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

"Kid" Coleman is known as one of the most attractive and mischievous girls in our institution. She is a girl that everyone likes, but the boys here in Marlin High are out of luck for her heart is away in the Hills.

JESSIE MURREL KEELING

Glee Club 1915-16, '16-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Secretary Glee Club 1918-19.

Booster Club 1916-17, '17-18, '19-19.

Literary Society 1917-18.

In Murrel we find the personification of the truest friendship. There can never be another who can fill her place in our lives. Besides this great virtue, we may add that she is very intellectual and is "brim full" of ambition. The Class of '19 will never forget Her.

LAURA BLETSCH

Glee Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Treasurer and Librarian Glee Club 1918-19.

Booster Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19

Treasurer Sophomore Class 1916-17.

Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

Assistant Editor-in-Chief Students' Voice 1918-19.

Laura blew in with the corn crop from Otto in our Sophomore year, and she admits the fact. She demands attention and gets it, and her followers are many. Her big heart has been declared the reason for her big weight.

WILLIE MAUDE RELFE

Glee Club 1918-19.

"Billie" is her nickname, but "William" would be better, for she is just that dignified. She came to us in September from Chilton, and, after spending the winter in hard study, has decided to stop and join the "Don't Study Club." We wish she had been with us in the other three years of high school.

MANFORD EUGENE JONES

Military Company 1917-18.
Literary Society 1917-18.
Debating Representative 1917-18.
Basketball 1918-19.

Editor-in-Chief Students' Voice 1918-19

Manford is one of the most exemplary students that has ever crossed our threshold. He is a hard thinker and during his two years with us, has made many friends.

ROBERT DUPREE PETERSON

Yell Leader 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.
Sophomore Editor Students' Voice 1916-17.
Assistant Editor-in-Chief 1917-18.
Business Manager Students' Voice 1918-19.
Sergeant Military Company 1917-18.
President Junior Class 1917-18.

"Bob" is one of the best all-round members of our class. His pep as yell leader, has contributed much to the enthusiasm of M. H. S. He has made an excellent record in his studies, too, and we wish his success in the future.

WILSON ALONZO DURHAM

Military Company 1917-18.
Basketball 1917-18, '18-19.
Track 1919.

Senior Editor Students' Voice 1918-19.

"Jack" has every quality which should belong to a real man. Our only regret is that he has not been with the whole four years, but in the brief time he has been here, we have all become his friends.

LOVICK McCORD GLASS

Football 1917-18, '1918-19.

Basketball 1917-18, '1819.

"Mike" is an unassuming kind of a fellow and he never talks except when he knows he's right. Lovick is a coming athlete having made an excellent record in both football and basketball and we know that he will make good in the future.

CYRUS HALE HAILEY

Military Company 1917-18.

Football 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

Track 1918-19.

Literary Society 1917-18.

"Sugar" as you have probably guessed has a sweet disposition. His charming manners and his Chalmers car have quite won the charming ladies hearts. As a track man "Sugar" is a "dark horse" and his consistent training will, no doubt some day, make him an all-star man.

FRED WILLIAM PAULING

"Fritz" is a quiet sort of a fellow, but he is a good student and in spite of the ill health he has had during his high school career, he has made good.

C. B. MCGUFFIN

Military Company 1917-18.

"Mac" is a fine fellow and much liked by certain of the girls. He is noted for his pompadour and studious appearance. His good humor is inexhaustible and his many sterling qualities commend him to all.

HERMAN LEO HARTER

Football 1917-18, '18-19.

Military Company 1917-18.

Track 1918-19.

"Fuzzy" possesses a combination of good humor and good looks, which have opened many hearts. He is a midget wonder on the football field and his favorite pastime is meeting girls at the movies after school.

ALBERT DAVID BARROW

"D" is one of the pioneer students of our class in studying. His record in high school has been most excellent, and success is sure to follow his in all things. One more thing, he is not at all afraid of girls, but he just "natcherly" doesn't care a darn about 'em.

SIGNA FORD

Booster Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.
President Booster Club 1917-18.
Sophomore Editor Students' Voice 1916-17.
Junior Editor Students' Voice 1917-18.
President Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

We are not worried about Signa's getting by. Her brilliancy, her straightforwardness, and her friendship have characterized her as one of Marlin High School's stars. Without doubt, Signa will be admitted to the bar before many years have passed. Good luck to her.

MATTIE GLADYS HAYS

Glee Club 1915-16, '16-17, '17-18, '18-19.
Booster Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.

"Glad" came into our midst with smiles, and won our hearts with them. She has also won her courses in high school with smiles. As she leaves us to take up her life in the world, we feel sure she will be successful.

CLEOPATRA ELIZABETH BRADLEY

Glee Club 1916-17, '17-18, '18-19.
Booster Club 1917-18, '18-19.
Literary Society 1917-18.
Hiking Club 1917-18, '18-19.

"Cleo" possesses the modesty of the Cleopatra of history. Her blushes have attracted many and are the chief reason for her numerous admirers. Cleo is a good natured girl, and we wish her happiness in the future.
