

the information is the date of the issue of the newspaper. Continued from Issue #15/16:

October 28, 1904 Born in Charlotte Harbor on 19th to Mr. & Mrs. Isaac RIGGS, a daughter, weight ten pounds.

Born 7 P. M., 22nd to Mr. & Mrs. James A. NEWSOME, a son weight twelve pounds.

October 7, 1904 Willis GLANCEY and Miss Edith McGEHEE were married in this city last Sunday. The groom came from North Carolina.

September 9, 1904 Mrs. Siddle Alice TAYLOR died on September 1st. Her husband, Henry TAYLOR, died on March 19 of last year. Mrs. TAYLOR was originally a Miss BELL. She was born in Bogue, North Carolina, January 5, 1872 and was married in 1895. In February of 1901 they came here. They leave only one child, Garrett HINCKLEY, a lad of seven years.

August 19, 1904 Born on 14th to Mr. & Mrs. John RIGGS, Charlotte Harbor, a daughter.

Born in Charlotte Harbor to Mr. & Mrs. Fred BELL, Aug. 17, a son. To Mr. & Mrs. W. B. GUTHRIE, August 11, a daughter.

May 27, 1904 Born May 17, a daughter to Mr. & Mrs. Charles GOODALL, Cleveland.

Born May 19, a daughter to Mr. & Mrs. Sheldon FUSSELL, Cleveland.

June 3, 1904 Capt. Owen HOLMES died Tuesday at the home of his son, Walter at Glen. His home was in Goldsboro, North Carolina. He was about 75 years old and had been a Confederate soldier.

June 24, 1904 John Lesley DISHONG married Ella Edwina WORD in Monroe County, Mississippi on June 29. ??

July 22, 1904 Monteville HAMILTON and Miss Flossy A. FINE were married on the 12th at the Cape Haze lighthouse.

Mr. Vivien B. BRIGHT and Miss Julia E. IVEY were married on the 17th.

July 29, 1904 Kinion Frederick SHEFFIELD was born in Wilmington, North Carolina October 22, 1848 and died at his home four miles south of Punta Gorda, July 21, 1904. He married Lydia A. JOHNSON February 7, 1872. She died October 26, 1877 and on January 23, 1879 he married Janie I. JOHNSON. His second wife died January 18, 1884 and he was married again on November 10, 1885 to Miss Julia HARDEE, daughter of Judge W. B. HARDEE. This last wife and 3 daughters and 3 sons survive. He came to Punta Gorda nine years ago.

January 16, 1908 Maj. George P. DAVIS, proprietor of the Hotel Dade died Monday. He was born in Salem, Mass. in 1846. During the War of the '60's he served in Co. F, First New Hampshire Cavalry. He lived in Chicago, Lexington, Kentucky and Chattanooga. He conducted hotels here, Arcadia and St. Petersburg. His first wife died and three children by her are also dead. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Clara EMORY, whom he married in Warner, New Hampshire. They had three sons, the eldest died in Chattanooga. The other two, Lloyd of this place and Carroll of Savannah are grown. Mr. DAVIS also leaves three sisters one of whom is Mrs. C. G. DAVIS of Punta Gorda.