

6. Rebecca Summeralls, born February, 1860 per the 1860 census (1900 gives March, 1864); married in Manatee County on August 14, 1879, Jackson Albritton, son of James M. and Fannie (Raulerson) Albritton.

About 1846, Thomas Summeralls, his brother David Summeralls and his widowed mother, Sarah Summeralls moved to south Florida settling in Hillsborough County near present day Plant City. Thomas later homesteaded near Fort Meade in present day Polk County.

Thomas was a member of Capt. William B. Hooker's Company in 1856. He was mustered into service on Jan. 3, 1856.

Thomas Summeralls was listed in the 1860 Hillsborough County census as living in the southwestern section of present day Polk County. Some of his neighbors were Sarah (Summeralls) Mercer, Eli English, Stephen Hollingsworth and Willoughby Tillis. He was listed as a tax payer in Polk County in 1861.

Tom Summerall was listed as an owner of some of the cattle that William B. Hooker drove to Manatee County and was loaded on board ships on June 13, 1860.

The Summeralls moved to Manatee County about 1862 settling in the Calvinia area on Horse Creek. Thomas died there on Dec. 30, 1862.

On Feb. 13, 1863, Liddy Ann Summerall petitioned the Manatee Co. Judge of Probate for the letters of administration on the estate of Thomas Summerall. John Parker and William McLeod were appointed to be appraisers of the personal estate of Mr. Summerall. His property was valued at $8,220.10 and included the following items:

|                    |         |
|--------------------|---------|
| 650 head of cattle | $5,200 |
| 4 head of horses   | 800     |
| 1 yoke of oxen     | 100     |
| cash               | 195     |
| 80 head of hogs    | 240     |
| 1 negro boy        | 1,000   |
| 1 wagon            | 125     |

In 1866 the children of Thomas Summeralls registered their marks and brands with the Manatee County Clerk: May 23rd - Thomas Summerall: split & underbit in one ear, swallowfork half fleur-de-lis & underbit in the other, branded TS; Owen Summerall: swallowfork &  $\frac{1}{2}$  fleur-de-lis in one ear, undersquare & upper bit in the other, branded ON; Charles Summeralls: swallowfork &  $\frac{1}{2}$  fleur-de-lis in one ear, undersquare in the other, branded CS; Rebecka Summeralls: swallowfork &  $\frac{1}{2}$  fleur-de-lis in one ear, upper square & underbit in the other, branded SW. June 12th - Henry Summeralls: swallowfork &  $\frac{1}{2}$  fleur-de-lis in each ear, branded HS and swallowfork &  $\frac{1}{2}$  fleur-de-lis in one ear, poplar leaf in the other, branded HS. June 13th - R. R. Summeralls: swallowfork &  $\frac{1}{2}$  fleur-de-lis in one ear, swallowfork in the other, branded 26 and swallowfork &  $\frac{1}{2}$  fleur-de-lis in one ear, underbit in the other, branded 26.

On Oct. 1, 1866, Joel J. Addison as sheriff and ex officio administrator of the estate of Thomas Summeralls for $4,000 paid by Laboran A. Rawls sold him a stock of cattle which included cattle with the brands TS, 11 & 88.

On January 29, 1868, Lidia Ann Summerall as administratrix of the estate of Thomas Summeralls, deceased and Jesse H. Altman sold to John T. Lesley and Joel J. Addison 800 cattle for $1,600.

Mrs. Summeralls applied for a widow's pension on Feb. 15, 1893. She was living at Calvinia, DeSoto County. She gave her husband's description at the time of his enlistments as 5'2" with blue eyes,