JACOB N. DRIGGERS 1815-1883

Jacob N. Driggers was born in Bulloch County, Georgia in September, 1815 son of William and Millie (Iastingler) Driggers and grandson of Jonas Driggers, Revolutionary Soldier. Prior to 1830 the Driggers family migrated to Lowndes County settling on the east side of the Alapaha River near the present town of Stockton.

About 1840 Jacob N. Driggers married Nancy (Jernigan) Glisson. She was born about 1820 (according to her tombstone) and had been married to Bryant Glisson. Children of Jacob & Nancy Driggers:

1. Dennis Driggers, born 1841 in Lowndes County, Georgia.
2. Mary Ann "Polly" Driggers, born 1843; married James Kirkland on August 26, 1858 in Hillsborough County, Fl.
3. Jacob Driggers, born November 16, 1844 in Hamilton Co., Fl.; died November 3, 1926; married Ella Underhill March 18, 1864.
4. James W. Driggers, born May 9, 1846; died December 1, 1924; married Ellen _____.
5. Nancy A. Levina "Venie" Driggers, born 1847; married Simeon Johnson March 29, 1868 in Manatee County, Fl.
