

2. David Arnold, born 1868; married Nicie Jane Pollard and lived at West Frostproof--at Midland in Polk County. They raised a large family.
3. Ellison Arnold, born 1870; married twice--his second wife was Agnes Vickers. They had three children and lived at Okeechobee City.

In 1870 census of Charlton County, Georgia Newton & Sidney Arnold are listed with the four Rhoden children and two of their own children. They gave as their Post Office address, Sanderson, Florida.

Newton saw his family, father, mother, brothers John and Danial and his sister, Matilda Arnold Smith, all go south to Manatee County, Florida so he and Sidney loaded up their wagon and followed.

In the 1885 census of Manatee County, Newton and Sidney are listed with the three Arnold boys, Albert, David and Ellison Arnold. Aaron Rhoden was still at home at that time and John Arnold, father of Newton was also living with them. Ellender Baker Arnold died August 1882.

The family prospered on their farm. The agriculture schedule for 1885 listed his farm produce at a value of $1,753.00 besides his home and buildings. After their children married, they moved across the line into Polk County. In the 1900 census of Osceola County, Florida Newton and Sidney were living in the home of Albert and Adaline Arnold. Newton Arnold died in 1920.
