

in the amount of $2.50.

Emiline Miley Pollock married secondly on March 26, 1868 in Hillsborough County, Dennis Adams, born 1814. They had a son:

4. Linton Adams, born 1869. (His complete name was probably Davis Linton Adams as the 1870 census identified him as Davis while the 1880 census listed him as Linton.)

Dennis Adams died 1869 and was buried in Antioch Cemetery.

Emiline Adams married thirdly on April 3, 1870 at Thonotosassa, George W. Giddens, born 1829 in South Carolina. A farmer, George was a Confederate veteran. War Department records show that George W. Giddings (also borne as George W. Gideons, but not found as George Giddens), private, Company A, 6th Florida Infantry, Confederate States Army, enlisted March 12, 1862. On the roll for January and February 1864, he was reported absent, sent to hospital by surgeon February 3, 1864. He subsequently was honorably discharged in Tennessee. George and Emiline Giddens had a daughter:

5. Adeline Giddens, born 1871.

The 1870 Hillsborough County Census recorded the Giddens family in household #41. Besides George and "Emma" there were the children: Sarah, age 12; Emiline, age 10; Thomas, age 8; Davis Adams, age 1. Emiline's mother was a next door neighbor in household #40. George W. Giddens died on January 28, 1876 while away from home in Sumter County, Florida.

The 1880 Hillsborough County Census enumerated the family in precinct no. 10, household #14. Emily Giddings (it was given as Giddings), a 43 year old farmer, had in her home: her children: Thos. B., age 18; Linton A., age 11; Adeline, age 9; plus Lee Lofton, age 6, her nephew. Andrew Giddings, age 52, a farmer, and his wife, Sarah, age 50, were neighbors in household 7.

On August 30, 1904, Emiline Giddens applied for a pension as the widow of George Giddens of Company A, 6th Florida. She gave her post office address as Dover, Fla. Andrew Giddings of Keyville and E. B. Trask gave an affidavit of personally knowing George Giddens and of his service in the 6th Florida. Also giving an affidavit concerning George Giddens were M. M. Miley and S. A. Miley, both citizens of Hillsborough County. Her claim was approved by the State Board of Pensions of Florida on September 29, 1904 with pay from September 10, 1904 at the rate of $96 per annum as certificate number 3271. When reapplying under the Act of 1909 on July 26, 1909, Emiline gave her post office address as Thonotosassa. She also stated that she had continuously resided in Florida since February 9, 1847. J. F. Taylor and H. H. Royal attested her claim while M. Blanton and M. M. Miley certified her claim. Her pension was continued at the rate of $120 per annum.

Emiline Giddens died April 24, 1925 and was buried in Antioch Cemetery.
